Lightning tore a four-foot hole in a Newton Centre dwelling Saturday afternoon, jarring a family of five.

The home of Dr. George Heels at 131 Lake Ave., was struck by a bolt during the severe electrical storm, but the occupants escaped injury.

They were Dr. and Mrs. Heels and their three children, Thomas, 22, Donald, 19 and Hannah, 10.

Dr. Heels smelled smoke and called the fire department which prevented the flames from spreading, and covered the hole.

Memo To Candidates September 8th Deadline For Filing Papers

The Newton Civic Association, only local city-wide group which accepts the responsibility of endorsing candidates for city office, today advised all prospective candidates for the November election that Tuesday, September 8 is the deadline for filing nomination papers.

Newton voters will elect a mayor, 16 aldermen-at-large, eight ward aldermen, and eight members of the school committee at the November 3rd balloting.

Champe A. Fisher, president of the association, points out that the group is non-partisan and was organized in 1953 for the purpose of promoting efficient, representative and responsible government in this city and to encourage citizens to take a more active part in civic affairs.

Robert Baumberg of 80 Cross Hill road, Newton Centre, who is entering his senior year at Boston University Law School, has just completed a two-months legal internship in the office of Attorney General Edward J. McCormack, Jr., under a new program inaugurated by McCormack.

Baumberg, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Baumberg, was one of seven outstanding law school seniors selected to work in McCormack's office during the summer.

He spent most of the two months in the Charitable Trust Division of the Attorney General's office and worked part of the time examining records in the Plymouth and Essex probate courts.

Fog, Rain Slick Roads Here; 8 Autoists Hurt

Fog and rain, which made driving conditions hazardous, was blamed for a series of highway accidents which sent five of eight persons injured to Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

Two victims in one car each suffered a fractured nose and facial injuries. They were Paul N. DeCoste, 19, of 204 Crafts St., Newtonville, a student driver, and Jacqueline Gauvreau of 123 Bridge St., Newton. The car skidded onto a lawn in Oak Hill.

Also taken to the hospital and held for treatment were Ralph H. Borgeson of 8 Columbus Ave., Newton Upper Falls, and Richard Newton of 305 Newtonville Ave., Newtonville, whose cars collided in Newton Upper Falls early Sunday.

Fazio Defends Moore Against Merrill Blast

Republican City Committee Chairman Carleton P. Merrill was sharply criticized today by Thomas Fazio of West Newton, also a member of the GOP organization, for his recent blast at Norman E. Moore, a candidate for Mayor.

Fazio declared that the allegations directed at Moore by Merrill were "both unfounded and unworthy of a chairman holding such a position of public trust."

The statement by Merrill, with which GOP Committee Chairman Fazio took sharp issue today, accused Moore of failing to support members of the Republican State ticket in last year's election. Fazio, in turn, called on Merrill to apologize and resign from the city committee chairmanship.

Fazio emphasized that he was speaking as an individual — DEFENDS MOORE — (Continued on Page 7)

The Newton Public Works Department has completed its 1959 maintenance program.

Record Number of Children Will Enter Newton Schools

New Experiences Await Returning Scholars

High School Students Resume Classes With New House Plan

Students and teachers who are old hands at Newton High School will face some new experiences when school opens during the week after Labor Day. Perhaps of most interest to students is an additional day of vacation before the return to desks, books and classes.

One of the most prominent changes facing local high school students this year will be the inauguration of the House Plan of six small schools within the large institution.

Sophomores will report to school on Thursday, September 10 at 8:15 a.m. Seniors and juniors will be ready to assume their choralistic duties at the same time on Friday, Sept. 11.

However, all day Wednesday, students are asked to stay away from the school to give members of the faculty an opportunity for orientation to the school's new House Plan.

The House Plan, which completely revises the basic organization of Newton High School, by setting up six small schools within the large school, is not the only change students and teachers will face this fall. For the first time the scheduling of each individual student has been done by electronic data processing equipment which the school has rented from IBM.

By the end of last week an individual letter had been mailed to each student. Each student received his program for the coming year, a letter from his guidance counselor and housemaster, and a letter from the Principal, Mr. Harold Howe II.

Mr. Howe today emphasized the following points of information which may be of interest to students and their parents:

Opening Bells Will Clang Wednesday At Elementary And Junior High Schools

A record high number of boys and girls will enter Newton's public schools next week when the clang of the opening bell will mark the start of a new school year.

Tentative estimates of school officials are that 16,993 children will troop into public school classrooms throughout the city to resume or begin the serious business of acquiring an education.

That would be an increase of 417 over last year's top enrollment of 16,576.

This year's number of public school pupils actually may go over the 17,000 mark when final figures are tabulated.

Newton's public school enrollment has been rising steadily for more than a decade.

During the past 10 years the number of public school pupils has increased nearly 50 percent. In 1949 the enrollment was 11,477 as compared to the 16,993 expected next week.

Not all the students will return to school at the same time. Vacations will be extended a day or two for several thousand high and junior high school students.

All elementary school pupils are to report at their classrooms next Wednesday morning.

Each of the junior high schools has arranged a starting schedule of its own, with the pupils reporting in staggered fashion.

At the Day Junior High School the 7th grade children will attend class from 8:30 a.m. until noon on Wednesday. The 8th and 9th grade pupils at that school are to report at 12:45 p.m. on Wednesday and to remain until 2 p.m.

The 7th graders at the Bigelow Junior High School will report at 9 a.m. Wednesday and attend class until 11:30 a.m. The 8th and 9th graders are to report at 12:30 the same day and stay until 2:30.

At the Meadowbrook Junior High School the 7th graders will put in a full day on Wednesday, starting at 8:30 a.m. and finishing at 3 p.m. The 8th and 9th grade pupils will report at 8:30 on Thursday morning and will attend classes until 3 p.m.

At the Warren Junior High School the 7th graders will report at 8:10 a.m. Wednesday and will attend class until noon. The 8th and 9th graders report at 1 p.m. Wednesday and remain until 2:20 p.m.

At the Weeks Junior High School the 7th graders report at 8:40 next Wednesday morning and will have class until 3:05 in the afternoon. The 8th and 9th graders start their classes at 8:40 on Thursday — ENTER SCHOOLS — (Continued on Page 15)

Teacher Lack, Rising Cost In Town Schools

It's back-to-school time! Cognizant of this gay event in the lives of the small fry, the September issue of "Suburbia Today" carries a cover symbolic of the return to desks, books and classes. It arrives next week with this newspaper.

Jane Oliver's clever creation depicts the scholars, brushed, combed, soaped and ironed making their way schoolward.

A timely article by Dr. Thomas E. Robinson, noted educator, points out that there are many difficulties in the schools of Suburbia, difficulties in getting enough good teachers fast enough to meet the exploding needs.

Dr. Robinson, president of the State Teachers College in Gloucester, N. J., reports on the unique opportunities that suburban schools offer the beginning teacher, both in personal and professional growth. "I'd Rather Teach In The Suburbs" is a thought-provoking article.

"And What About School Taxes?" by Christina Pappas, turns over another page in the suburban school situation and presents a vista not quite so rosy. The battle for better schools is far from won, but many tax — SUBURBIA — (Continued on Page 7)

Off To Alaska To Launch Career

Horace Greeley's sage advice to "go West young man and grow up with the country" is still claiming disciples in these modern days—only the direction assumes a new tangent, northwest and to Uncle Sam's 49th State, Alaska.

Recent local followers of the idea are Mr. and Mrs. Dodge Morgan, West Newton residents until last week. The Morgans either have arrived at Anchorage, their Alaskan destination, or are nearing their objective.

The Morgans, an adventure-loving couple, will establish a public relations firm in the Alaskan city. They completed special courses at Boston University's summer school this month.

They graduated with honors from the University's School of Public Relations and Communications.

The Morgans were presented with an unusual opportunity for briefing on the ebb and flow of life's currents in the Arctic when they became acquainted with Russell McLaughlin, also taking courses at B. U.

Mr. McLaughlin is a school principal on a desolate island in the Arctic Ocean 120 miles north of Nome. He spent the last year at Boston University working for a Master of Education degree.

Mrs. Morgan is a native of Augusta, Me., her husband of Malden. They have resided for some time in West Newton, before deciding on a career in Alaska.

READY FOR NEW LIFE IN ALASKA—Mrs. Dodge Morgan, of West Newton tries on an Alaskan parka for size, while her husband, right, decides it is charming. The Morgans are on the way to launch a new career in the 49th state. At left is Russell McLaughlin, a graduate with the Morgans from B.U. Summer School, a school principal on a desolate Arctic island, who briefed the West Newton couple on life in the frozen North.

C of C One-Day Work-Shop

The Newton Chamber of Commerce today announced complete details for the Newton Secretary's One-Day Workshop at Boston College — designed for the employee to help herself and the firm which employs her. The course is being offered to all female office employees of member firms on either Sept. 15 or Sept. 16, to allow the firms to register half of their force on each of the dates concerned.

A limit of 125 has been set for each day. Employers are urged to register their employees as soon as possible.

The course will cover five subjects: seating posture, typing, human relations, telephone usage and personality.

The place is Fulton Hall of Boston College, Room 100, 140 Commonwealth Avenue, Newton.

Herbert C. Williamson Jr., branch manager General Fireproofing Co. Boston, will give the course on "correct seated posture for typing and clerical work."

"How to type accurately and rapidly, and how to master the electric typewriter," will be explained by Franklin H. Dye, lecturer and demonstrator, Royal McBee Corporation.

Dr. Antonette E. DiLoreto, instructor at the B. C. College of Business Education, will talk on "human relations and communications in the business office."

Miss Dorothy L. Crosby, telephone technique consultant of the New England Tel. and Tel. Co., will explain the correct telephone techniques and procedure.

The course in personality will be given by Mrs. Mildred L. Albert, dean, Academic Moderne, Inc., and Mrs. Doris Ronayne, assistant dean.

The Secretary's Workshop Committee is composed of Chairman Philip Townsend, Townsend Typewriter Company, Charles Mendell, manager of the local New England Telephone and Telegraph Business Office, Reece McGilvray, office manager of the Data-matic Division of the Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Company, Mark Gross, personnel director of the Ucinite

HELPING A GOOD CAUSE—These bright-eyed little youngsters, John Burnham, 4, and his sister, Nancy, 3, of Woodman street, Jamaica Plain, are spreading the good news of the annual Fall Field Day of the African Mission Fathers to be held Sunday afternoon, Sept. 13, at Queen of Apostles Seminary, Common street, Dedham.

Annual Queen of Apostles Fete

Famous "Jazz Priest" Field Day Attraction

The annual Fall Field Day of the African Mission Fathers will be held on Sunday afternoon, September 13, on the spacious grounds of Queen of Apostles Seminary, Common Street, Dedham.

One of the best, and most varied, programs in years has been arranged for the entertainment of the thousands of people expected to be present.

A special feature this year will be the songs and clarinet number of Father James Perrone, S.M.A. Father Perrone, in pre-seminary days under the name of Buddy James, was a featured vocalist and clarinet soloist with Tony Pastor's and other top-name bands. He also has been featured in a number of national magazine articles.

Games and rides will be available for young and old, some for various tests of skill, others for entertainment only. Refreshments of all kinds, including dinners, are on the menu.

Admission is free. Free transportation will be available from Dedham Line, Dedham Center and Charles River. Ample parking space for cars is available.

Bridge Cost-

The 14 cities and towns served by the MTA must share the $9.2 million cost for the extension itself, which was financed through a bond issue.

But the cost of keeping the bridges in Brookline and Newton in repair must be borne by the DPW. There is one bridge in Boston.

State engineers said the last paint job on some of the bridges goes back 25 years.

Acrid fumes from coal smoke and diesel fumes has corroded some of the bridges so badly that at least two may have to be replaced. Three others will require new steel and concrete decks.

Company and Giles E. Mosher Jr., manager of the Credit Department of the Newton-Waltham Bank and Trust Company.

This committee has developed a five phase instructional program designed to assist in the development of self-improvement in office employees and overall improvement in office procedures and techniques.

Through the co-operation of Reverend Francis B. McManis, S.J., secretary of Boston College, the classroom and cafeteria facilities of Boston College have been made available for the presentation of this one-day Workshop.

The sessions will begin with registration from 8:15 to 8:30. The instructional part of the Workshop will be held from 8:30 to 12:15 and 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. A coffee break will be provided at 10:00 a.m. with lunch at the Boston College Cafeteria from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m.

State Dept Is $933 Million, Says Rawson

Rep. Charles E. Rawson of Newton, says the net debt of the Commonwealth is $758 million. Another $155 million has been authorized but the bonds have not been sold.

"That adds up to $933 million," Rawson said. "We have interest charges of $19 million to meet now, and some $30 million more for debt services."

"Our former excellent credit rating of Triple A has dropped to Double A."

"Therefore it does not seem to me to be in the public interest to borrow more money."

Rep. Rawson made the statement to explain why he was one of 23 House members who voted last week against the governor's capital outlay program, which was passed.

He said he would vote against the bill at the enactment stage when a two-thirds vote is required.

Prep Course For Police Exams.

Services will start at 3:30 o'clock and will include a public recitation of the Rosary, during which those attending will walk in procession through the Italian-style gardens, led by a cross-bearer.

These gardens are noted by horticulturists for their beauty, with flowers and shrubs of nearly every hue and color charmingly arranged.

This will be followed by the Stations of the Cross, a short discourse by one of the priests at the Shrine, the blessing of the sick, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Fish Hook Cut From Eye With Knife, Razor Blade

Two eye doctors, using only a pen knife and a razor blade, removed a heavy fish hook from the eye of a Hyde Park, N. Y., school teacher last week in a delicate flashlight operation on the beach at Sea Bright, N. J.

Herbert S. Martin, 40, underwent the makeshift surgery without benefit of anesthesia after the doctors decided he could not be moved without endangering the eye.

When the ordeal was ended, Drs. James F. Clark and Merritt London, both of Red Bank, N. J., said they expected no damage to the eye.

Dr. Clark, a specialist in ophthalmology, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Clark of 34 Playstead road, who operates Renee's Dress Shop.

The heavy, weighted hook got imbedded in Martin's eye while he was casting off the jetty at Sandlass Beach, which is near Newark.

Police located Dr. Clark, in the company of Dr. London, in Long Branch and sped both to the beach without instruments.

While Police Capt. George Dougherty of Sea Bright held the flashlight, Dr. London hound the patient's head to hold the hook and weight in position. Then Dr. Clark performed the operation with the pen knife and a razor blade provided by beach owner, Henry Sandlass.

Then Martin was taken by ambulance to Dr. Clark's office for further treatment.

By LEE LOUMOS
Most of the ardent fans of Ricky Nelson, Ed Byrne, Pat Boone, Elvis Presley and Fabian have never had the opportunity of watching an old-time vaudeville show. Radio entertainment and the arrival of "talking" motion pictures brought about vaudeville's decline during the 1930's. From its humble origin in burlesque, vaudeville came to be the main attraction in hundreds of theaters throughout the U. S. and Canada between the 1880's and 1930's. It's greatest center was New York's Palace Theatre, which became the goal of every vaudeville act. A few of the top stars who played there were George Burns, Gracie Allen, Weber & Fields, Eva Tanguay, George M. Cohan, Mae West, Harry Houdini, W. C. Fields, Will Rogers, Eddie Cantor, the Marx Brothers and Fred Astaire.

"A Night at the Palace," starring George Burns and guest star Jack Benny, will be one of 30 Tuesday night special concerts during the 1959-60 season over the NBC-TV Network. In addition to a half dozen of the established stars who played in the Palace, this one-hour-long show will also star six of the current stars who probably would play the Palace were vaudeville there today. Both Burns and Benny got their start in vaudeville more than three decades ago. Jack Benny appearing on stage in diapers, of course. Otherwise, how could he still be only 32?

F. N. FLASCHNER

Flaschner Is Candidate for Second Term

Alderman Franklin N. Flaschner today announced his candidacy for reelection.

Flaschner, who lives at 564 Quinobequin road in Waban, is serving as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 5.

He is a member of the Aldermanic claims and rules, public buildings, and franchises and licenses committee.

In his statement announcing his candidacy Alderman Flaschner pointed out that Newton has no primary and that all candidates run in the November election.

He emphasized that each voter has an opportunity to vote for one candidate for Mayor, eight School Committee members, 16 Aldermen-at-Large and one Ward Alderman.

"Therefore, the citizens do have a large number of candidates to learn about," he observed.

Before his election as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 5 in 1937, Flaschner was named "Young Man of the Year" by the Newton Chamber of Commerce.

He was educated at Boston Latin School, Yale College, the Littauer School of Public Administration at Harvard and Yale Law School.

Flaschner served as a communications officer in the navy during World War II. He was associated counsel for Dr. Miriam Van Waters in 1950 and succeeded in turning back the proceedings brought in an effort to oust Dr. Van Waters from the superintendency of the Framingham Women's Reformatory.

After graduating from law school, Flaschner settled in Newton, a decision which was influenced by the fact that his wife, Beatrice, had grown up here. They have three daughters attending Newton schools, two at the Angier elementary school and one at the Weeks Junior High School.

Flaschner was the first president of the Oak Hill Park Association. He subsequently served as president of the Oak Hill District Improvement Association, the Memorial School PTA, the Newton World Affairs Council, as campaign chairman of the Newton Red Feather Drive in 1956, and as a director of the

King Shoots 71 For Police-Fire Golf Win

Some 180 police, firemen and guests dared occasional thunder showers and a soggy Commonwealth Country Club on Monday to participate in the 11th Annual Newton Police-Fire Golf Tournament.

And when the cannonading from the tee was finished and scores posted, Don King, 29-year-old Newton firefighter, captured low gross honors with a one-under par 71.

Newton Taxpayers' Association, the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross, the Newton Community Chest and the Norumbega Council of Boy Scouts of America.

He carded a one-over par 37 for the front nine, but birdied the 13th, 14th and 17th to come in with a 33, to shade a stroke off regulation figures.

Waltham patrolman Larry Doyle, one of that city's best known golfers, had scores of 37 on both nines for his 74 and top honors in the visiting police and fire division.

Tony Vahey and Norman (Fuzzie) Furbush carded 76 for a tie for low guest honors.

Over 90 prizes, all donated by Newton merchants, were distributed. They ranged from a plastic trash barrel and golfing equipment to an outdoor barbecue set.

In addition to Newton police and fire fighters, there were players from Brookline, Waltham, Watertown, Quincy and Boston departments, MDC police, FBI and Registry of Motor Vehicles.

Scottish Games

At Brookline On Labor Day

The Clans'll be gathering at Brookline Field on Labor Day, which is Monday of course, for the Seventh Annual Scottish Picnic and Highland games.

The games have an international flavor.

The soccer challenge game will bring together teams representing Ireland and Scotland, composed of residents of these countries now resident in this area.

But the most thrilling exhibition will be the parade of massed bands.

The committee has succeeded in securing two guest bands from Nova Scotia — all girls.

One is the famed Gaelic College MacDonald 100 Junior Pipe Band from St. Ann's, Cape Breton. Included in this band is 17-year-old Heather MacKenzie, who is regarded by famed piping authority Seumas MacNeill as the best girl piper he ever heard.

The other all-girl band is the MacDougall Girls' Pipe Band from North Sydney, N. S. There also is a possibility the famed Campbell Pipe Band made up of Canadian Veterans from Ottawa, also may compete.

Two bands from Connecticut are included in the number of class "A" and "B" entries competing for the $1,375 in prizes.

There will be a tug-of-war for eight-man teams, and a large entry of men and women in the Highland dancing and piping competition from all over Canada and the Eastern states.

It Isn't the Church - It's YOU

If you want to have the kind of a church
Like the kind of a church you like,
You needn't slip your clothes in a grip
And start on a long, long hike.
You'll only find what you left behind,
For there's nothing really new.
It's a knock at yourself when you knock your church;
It isn't the church - it's YOU.

When everything seems to be going wrong,
And trouble seems everywhere brewing;
When prayer meeting, Young People's meeting, and all,
Seem simmering slowly - stewing,
Just take a look at yourself and say,
"What's the use of being blue?"
Are you doing your "bit" to make things "hit"?
It isn't the church - it's YOU.

It's really strange sometimes, don't you know,
That things go as well as they do,
When we think of the little - the very small mile -
We add to the work of the few.
We sit, and stand around, and complain of what's done,
And do very little but fuss,
Are we bearing our share of the burdens to bear?
It isn't the church - it's US.
So, if you want to have the kind of a church
Like the kind of a church you like,
Put off your guile, and put on your best smile,
And hike, my brother, just hike,
To the work in hand that has to be done -
The work of saving a few.
It isn't the church that is wrong, my boy;
It isn't the church - it's YOU.

Political Highlights

However, most, if not all, P. O'Neill, Jr., of Cambridge 331,672, Congressman John W. McCormack of Dorchester 332,581, Congressman James A. Burke of Milton 351,679, and Congressman Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of North Attleboro, 340,571.

These figures, of course, will be revised after next year's federal census when the population changes and shifts will be reflected.

But they provide some idea of what may be expected when the number of congressional districts is reduced from 14 to 12, whether it be done for the 1960 or the 1962 election.

Technically, if the districts were revised next year on the basis of the 1950 census, there would be some argument for changing them again in 1961 after the 1960 census.

The Democratic politicians may be assuming a more troublesome problem than they anticipate when they undertake the task of redrafting the congressional district lines.

They'll be anxious to avoid injuring any of the eight Democratic Congressmen. Yet, they would have to make drastic changes in most of their districts if they are to divide the Commonwealth into 12 congressional sectors instead of 14.

Many voters also are likely to resent being shunted from one congressional district to another and may well vent their displeasure upon the legislators who do the shunting.

By the time they get through weighing all the ramifications and difficulties involved, a sizeable number of Democratic legislators may be very happy to postpone the Congressional Gerrymander until after the 1960 election.

House Redistricting Causing Confusion

The move to reapportion the seats in the Massachusetts House of Representatives is clouded by so much confusion that most of the legislators who would be affected don't understand what it is all about.

When they wake up to the real facts, they're almost certain to give a swift and emphatic heave-ho to any Gerrymander directed at the lower branch of the State Legislature.

The average law-maker on Beacon Hill is under the im-

Ralph F. Taber Backs Gibbs In Mayoralty Race

State Senator Donald L. Gibbs today was strongly endorsed for election as the next Mayor of Newton by Ralph F. Taber of 377 Waltham street, West Newton, former chairman of the Newton School Committee and a trustee of the University of Massachusetts.

Taber pointed out that Gibbs was one of the six members of the State Senate who stood up in favor of a rollback on the issue of granting salary increases to University of Massachusetts faculty members.

"Senator Gibbs has demonstrated repeatedly that he is a champion of better education," Mr. Taber declared. "He has shown that to be the fact in every public office he has held."

"He proved it as a member of the Newton Board of Aldermen."

"He proved it while a member of the House of Representatives."

"He proved it while serving on the legislative committee on education."

And he proved it most recently as a member of the State Senate.

Senator Gibbs took a vigorous and forthright position on the question of granting raises to faculty members at the University of Massachusetts - raises which are needed to maintain and improve the standard of education.

He will vote for the establishment of 210 new House districts throughout the Commonwealth and that he will know exactly how the redistricting helps or hurts him personally.

That does not happen to be the case. What the legislators really will be asked to do is to write a blank check which would allow the commissioners in the various counties or a special commission appointed by Governor Furelo to revise the legislative districts and reapportion the House seats.

Most legislators to whom that has been explained have blanched at the information and have acted as if they were on the verge of fainting from the shock.

All the Legislature can do under the law as far as the Massachusetts House is concerned is to enact a bill specifying how many seats in the body each county shall have on the basis of their registered voters.

Suffolk County would be the biggest loser if the reapportionment is done strictly in accordance with the law. It would drop six seats, while Norfolk County would gain two and several other counties one seat apiece.

If the Suffolk County legislators voted to give up six of their present seats, which is unlikely, they would have no way of knowing what posts they were relinquishing or whether they were voting themselves out of office.

After the Legislature had enacted a bill fixing the number of House seats for each county, the Governor presumably would appoint a commission which would determine exactly how those seats would be apportioned.

That commission could re-vamp and revise the legislative districts, or it could leave the present district lines unchanged and simply determine how many seats each of the existing districts would have.

The senatorial and executive councillor districts are a different matter.

The Legislature has the authority to establish councillor and senatorial sectors but that is small comfort to a House member whose consuming interest is what is going to happen to his own district.

Republican leaders say it would be unconstitutional to revamp either the House, Senate or Council districts next year, and the predict that the Supreme Court could nullify any Gerrymander of those bodies which is attempted.

They cite an amendment to the State Constitution which specifies that the Legislature shall divide the Commonwealth into senatorial and councillor districts and shall reapportion the House seats during the legislative session following a State census and that the change shall be in effect the fourth January after the State census, the latest of which was made in 1955.

What that means is that any reapportionment of senatorial or councillor districts or any reapportionment of House seats should have been done in 1956 or 1957 and should have been in effect for the 1958 election.

"I'll bet you had to rush to catch this train."

Registrar Warns Motorists

10,000 Officers Ready For Labor Day Patrols

10,000 Registry, State and local forces will be at full "crack-down" strength as the Labor Day week-end "safe driving" campaign is launched state-wide in an effort to stem the expected toll of traffic fatalities and injuries.

Registrar Clement A. Riley has issued a stern warning to the motoring public, the heedless fringe, that is, of the scope and extent of the safety patrol.

Box Score Of Death

Here is the box score of traffic deaths over the Labor Day Weekend for previous years. What will the figures be for this year? The answer rests with all of us who drive cars.

1954	364
1956	455
1957	445
1958	420
1959

Many of these motorists died of their own mistakes, or carelessness behind the steering wheel. Some, were the innocent victims of other drivers' violations and disregard for laws. All are dead.

Two League Finals

Auburndale Merchants Win American Title

The Auburndale Merchants swamped St. Bernard's in four straight games to win the Newton Two League American Division championship.

They will receive the championship trophy at the Annual Award Dinner to be held next Thursday, Sept. 10, at the Normandie Room in Norumbega Park.

This marked the first time the Merchants competed in this division, but many of its players were members of the Corpus Christi club which won the American League title in 1958.

The Merchants opened the finals of the division playoffs on August 23 with a twin-bill victory over St. Bernard's, 14 to 3 and 8 to 2.

Lefty Buddy Ryan, who proved to be a standout during the season as well as the finals, did not allow an earned run and struck out eight as his mates slammed out 14 runs in the first game.

Jim Leonard with four hits and John Kreider with three, were the big guns for Auburndale in the opener of the double-bill played at Auburndale Playground.

Jim Murphy pitched the second game as the Merchants came up with two runs in the second inning and two more in the fourth. St. Bernard's was never in contention.

Last Wednesday, Paul Fitzgerald pitched a three-hit shutout and Manny Connery hit a grand-slam homer as the Merchants took the third game from St. Bernard's 7 to 0 at the West Newton Common.

Fitzgerald, making his first start in the series, struck out four but allowed only three scattered hits.

Lefty Tom McInnis was the victim of Connery's four-run belt in the second inning, and Jim Fitzpatrick went to the mound for the West Newton nine. He held Auburndale to a single run over the last three innings.

Buddy Ryan roared back to hurl a no-hitter in the fourth and final game which the Merchants won 7 to 0, for their second consecutive shut-out.

The ex-Newton High star, fanned seven, gave up three walks, and allowed only one runner to advance as far as second base.

Citizen Asks Question

The Newton Graphic Dear Editor:
In recent issues of the Newton Graphic you have been publishing columns by our local Legislators. I wonder if some of these same men and women would care to explain their recent votes in favor of doubling the registration fees for the thousands of owners of small automobiles or their votes against pay raises for the underpaid faculty at the U. of Mass.?

Since we are told that the rates were not increased for the sake of more revenue, why were they? To relieve the tax burden on the owners of Cadillacs?

The tuition at the U. of Mass. was doubled for the implied purpose of raising faculty salaries. Why is the money now being kept in the General Fund? Is it for more D.P.W. patronage jobs and secret pay raises?

Yours truly,
Irate Tax Payer
(Name withheld)

patrolled by enforcement officers and Registry inspectors, only a fool would get behind the wheel this Labor Day week-end and drive heedlessly, at great speed or after drinking."

"The work you have accomplished during this time has been of tremendous assistance to me and my staff, and I am sure the experience you acquired here will prove invaluable to you as you pursue your legal career," the certificate presented to Baumburg by McCormack stated.

Newton Minister Makes 2-Months Tour Through Europe, Mid-East

Rev. Dr. Paul J. Uhlinger, Pastor of the Newton Methodist Church, has returned with his wife and daughter from a two-month tour of Europe and the Middle East.

Dr. Uhlinger, a Lecturer in Philosophy at Northeastern University, made the trip under a Stowell scholarship granted annually by the New England Conference of Methodist Churches to two Methodist clergymen in New England for the purpose of visiting and studying in Palestine.

Dr. Uhlinger, who is writing a book on King Solomon in the light of archeological findings, visited Biblical and other archeological sites in the Middle East during the trip.

The journey began June 9 when the Uhlingers left Montreal, Canada, by boat for Liverpool. Arriving in England they spent four days in London, and later four days in Paris where Marthanne, the Uhlingers' 18-year-old daughter left her parents and flew to Schweinfurt, Germany, where she was to spend three weeks at the home of a girl friend.

Marthanne, a graduate of Newton High School this year, met her friend Amgard Sooss last year while the latter was visiting the United States under the sponsorship of the Youth Council of the New England Methodist Churches. Dr. and Mrs. Uhlinger then drove to Rome via Southern France and the French and Italian Riviera. During their trip to Rome, a torrential cloudburst erupted near Pisa on July 26 making the main road impassable.

It was the same storm during which an American TWA plane bound from Rome to Paris crashed with the loss of 68 lives. It delayed the Uhlingers about 12 hours and necessitated a 100 mile detour.

After a two-day stay in Rome, Dr. and Mrs. Uhlinger flew to Cairo, where they spent two days including a visit to the pyramids. They then visited Beirut and Byblos, an ancient Venetian seaport. Traveling further, they visited the age-old city of Baalbek and went on to Damascus, Syria.

At Amman, the capital of Jordan, Dr. and Mrs. Uhlinger attended a Fourth of July open house at the residence of Sheldon T. Mills, American Ambassador to Jordan. The event was attended by 700 to 800 persons and the Uhlingers met and talked with experts — EUROPE TOUR — —Students without programs should report to school at the regular times listed above and should take seats in the auditorium until assigned to a homeroom.

—Program changes will be kept to a minimum. None will be made without approval by a guidance counselor after an interview, and students desiring such an interview should phone the school immediately for an appointment.

Mr. Howe stated today that he expected the change to the House Plan and the new system of scheduling to work out well. He did admit that there would probably be a few unforeseen problems. "It is perfectly possible, for example, for a boy to be assigned to a girls' physical education class through the minor slip of a punch operator in processing IBM cards. But," said Mr. Howe, "we expect to have this sort of thing ironed out in a week or so." He didn't explain what the boy should do during the week his program was being changed.

Students at Newton High School were introduced to electronic processing of their records during the past school year when report cards were issued by this method. In placing the entire school operation, including attendance and the issue of college transcripts, on a modern business basis the school hopes to cut costs and improve services.

In discussing this change, the principal paid particular tribute to Mrs. Anna Mae Winchenbach, secretary in charge of IBM processing at the school; George A. Neilson, former assistant principal; Rudolph J. Satalak, administrative assistant. "Without the skill and devotion of these people," said Mr. Howe, "we would never have succeeded in making this major change which, in effect, takes the school out of the 19th Century and puts it in the second half of the twentieth as far as record keeping and programming are concerned."

New courses offered at Newton High School this fall include Modern, European History and second year Russian. The enrollment in first year Russian has doubled since it was first offered a year ago.

This is the 101st year of Newton High School's history and the last year in which all high school students in the city will attend school on the familiar grounds. Starting in September 1960, about 1000 sophomores, juniors, and seniors will be opening the new South High School in Newton Centre.

Mrs. White To

Classes Soon

Mrs. Sylvia Doress White of Harrington street, Newtonville will resume her piano instruction September 14. Mrs. White is a graduate of the New England Conservatory and also attended New York University.

While musical ability varies with each individual, Mrs. White feels very strongly that all of us have some degree of talent that can be developed through training, encouragement and patience. Instead of placing so much emphasis on one composition for the final recital at the end of the season, Mrs. White has organized her students into music clubs that meet every eight weeks to gain poise and confidence in playing before others.

These meetings have proved to be an excellent stimulus to better preparation by the pupil and to broaden their musical knowledge with informal discussions on many subjects ranging from the lives of composers, symphony compared to pops, Tanglewood Festival, concertos, to the development of the piano from the harpsicord and clavier.

A visit to Symphony Hall to hear the Boston Pops Orchestra featuring a piano soloist some time in June will be the topic for the final club discussion.

Last year almost one and a half million people were injured in traffic accidents. That represents untold grief, mental anguish and physical suffering for those involved, as well as heartbreak and pain for their families and loved ones. There are many agencies on the national, state and local levels that are working unceasingly to educate both drivers and pedestrians in effective measures to promote highway safety and to combat the national disgrace of maiming and slaughtering our friends and neighbors.

The Registry men, your local police and our school teachers, as well as various local clubs and organizations, are attempting to do a conscientious job in alerting our population to traffic dangers. And yet, accidents persist. Why? Because the average person is all in favor of traffic safety, yet he is unwilling to discipline his own behavior or accept restrictions imposed on him. He is convinced that he is a safe and prudent driver and he feels that it's the other fellow's irresponsibility and recklessness that cause accidents.

IT'S TIME FOR EVERY DRIVER TO TAKE STOCK OF HIMSELF and vow to exercise good judgment when driving... to control his temper and his car... even when some driver might do something to him that is obviously the other fellow's fault. You're probably heading for an accident yourself if you lose your temper and set out to get even... like the unfortunate chap pictured below.

BE A SMART DRIVER AND STAY ALIVE--GIVE OTHERS THE SAME OPPORTUNITY!

"If we'd only left our problems at home..."

On the road,

driving's your only problem! It better be! Today's traffic often demands quick decisions, fast action. What you do must be right—your safety depends on it. And unless driving has your complete attention, you could come up with the wrong answers. Last year 37,000 people died in traffic accidents—40 times that many suffered painful injuries. No driver can afford to overlook the consequences of inattention at the wheel. Keep your mind on driving—keep on living!

Where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!

THE MOTORIST'S PRAYER

"O God, give me a firm hand and a sharp eye so that I will not injure any person while driving. Thou hast given life and I pray that none of my actions will take away or spoil the gift which comes from Thee.

"Grant that I may refrain from the kind of indulgence that would impair my skill and thus endanger the life and safety of my fellow man.

"Guide my automobile for the protection of others. And may I not miss, because of the love of speed, the beauty of the world which Thou hast created. May I always drive courteously, safely and with a full sense of the responsibility which lies in my hands. AMEN" on the Point Four Program. British educators, and religious and political figures.

At one time during their tour of Jordan, Dr. and Mrs. Uhlinger stopped to photograph a watchtower in a nearby field. Several boys began to throw stones, and their driver immediately chased the boys away.

"We thanked the driver for his trouble," said Dr. Uhlinger, "but to our surprise he did it not because of any possible harm to us or himself, but because he was afraid his car would be damaged."

While in Jordan they saw evidences of the UN relief program in action for the 800,000 Arab refugees, and saw several cooperative work farms under construction.

Traveling further, they visited the Qumran community where the Dead Sea scrolls were written, and crawled into a cave where the first scroll was found.

The Uhlingers journeyed to Israel and saw several of the Dead Sea scrolls at the Hebrew University and visited the site where King Solomon had a court, and where the famous Megiddo stables were discovered.

From Tel Aviv they flew to Athens, where they visited the Acropolis and other famous ruins before flying back to Rome where they joined their daughter who had flown from Germany.

From there the trio journeyed through Italy and arrived at Geneva, during the summer conferences. Moving on, they visited the birthplace of Dr. Uhlinger's grandfather at the little town of Schaffhausen, Switzerland.

Dr. Uhlinger spoke with several persons with the same last name and facial characteristics, but there was no way to ascertain any blood relationships.

From Schaffhausen, the Uhlingers drove to Germany and the Black Forest and visited the Lower Rhine, Heidelberg, Bonn, Cologne, Holland, Amsterdam and Brussels. While in Brussels they noted improvements made in the city for the World's Fair such as vehicular tunnels and overpasses.

Returning to England, they visited London, Stratford on Avon, Oxford, Wales, and Canterbury before boarding ship and returning to the United States.

During the trip Dr. Uhlinger took some 1200 to 1500 colored slides which he plans to show during speaking engagements.

Chaplain of the Newton Lions Club, Dr. Uhlinger is a member of the Monday Evening Club, Newton Council of Churches, Newton YMCA, and the National Association of Biblical Instructors. Dr. Uhlinger is also a member of the Itinerates and Clerics clubs of Methodist ministers.

papers all over the country are beginning to wonder if the bill is going to be too high.

The September "Suburbia Today" arriving with this newspaper next week carries many other stories that all reflect the atmosphere of "well, the summer is about over, it's time to settle down and get to work again."

St. Stephen's Church parishioners in Orlando, California, reveal their secret of raising money for a building fund.

"Our Budget Talks Back" is the delightful story of how one enterprising family got back on the road to solvency.

The food pages in the September issue are dedicated to school days, sociability, and satisfactory breakfasts and all are kitchen-tested.

In Books, Movies, and Records, our readers will meet Marie Booser, five Musical Pennies, and the zaniest millionaires on record. Once again, the clever and popular cartoon, "Suburbia - Any Day" shows three dilemmas often suffered by suburban motorists.

Chest X-Rays For Newton School Personnel, Industry

The Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association announces an industrial Chest X-ray survey in Newton this Thursday and Friday.

The Newton School Personnel will be given Chest X-rays as required by law, at the Newton High School yard on Friday. Three Newton industries will take advantage of this service offered them by the local association.

Industries should make sure their personnel are given a chest x-ray at least every three years, according to the Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Wherever there is a large turn-over in employees it is advisable to have more frequent chest X-ray surveys so as to insure the good health of both old and the new employees. Healthy employees mean more and better work.

This chest X-ray survey is paid for by the sale of Christmas Seals in Newton.

What can be done about the citizen with tuberculosis, or another infectious disease, whose case is contagious and whose presence in the community constitutes a serious public health hazard?

Massachusetts did something about it two years ago, according to Miss Hilda G. Hope, Executive Director of Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association, when its General Court established a five-bed ward at Rutland State Sanatorium for re-

THOMAS J. GALLIGAN JR.

United Fund Names Thomas J. Galligan

The United Fund Campaign has announced appointment of Thomas J. Galligan Jr., of Waban, as a Section Chairman in the Public Relations Department. He will be in charge of Transit and Outdoor Advertising.

Galligan, a Boston College graduate with a master's degree in business administration from Harvard Business School, is Vice President and Assistant to the President of Boston Edison Co. He is also a member of the Engineer's Club of Boston.

From 1943 to 1946, Galligan served as an officer in the Navy, mainly in the Mediterranean area. He lives with his wife, Lauretta, and five sons at 1806 Beacon street.

elirant patients. Patients are admitted to the ward only if they menace the public health, in the opinions of local and state health authorities, police and welfare officials. It takes a warrant from the local police authority to commit patients.

Once there, treatment for the tuberculosis is continued until the disease is arrested. Many of the tuberculosis patients committed to Rutland, also suffered alcoholism or drug addiction and had police records.

Public health authorities of Massachusetts, Vermont, Connecticut and New York will discuss compulsory isolation of tuberculosis recalcitrants

Report That Braves After Dave Craig

Future plans of Dave Craig of Auburndale, who starred in hockey and baseball as a freshman at Colby College last year, remained indefinite following his return home from Truro, N.S., where he had a successful season in the Halifax District League.

The Milwaukee Braves are reportedly anxious to sign him for a bonus. The 6 foot 3 inch southpaw had a 5-3 record and saved three other ball games until he suffered a twisted knee three weeks ago.

Sept. 15 at the New England Tuberculosis Conference. Dr. Paul Dufault, superintendent at Rutland, will report their experiences in the first year of operation of the recalcitrant ward.

More than 250 tuberculosis workers and volunteers will attend the three-day meeting. Among these will be: Miss Hilda G. Hope, Executive Director; Mrs. Robert Hardina, Asst. to Director; Mrs. David Weisberger, Seal Sale Chairman, of the Newton Tuberculosis and Health Association; and, Thomas Brown and Wilfred Solimene of Middlesex Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Paul Kirk Is Harvard Grid Candidate

Newton's Paul Kirk is one of 80 candidates who reported for pre-season football drills at Harvard Tuesday, and Coach John Yovicsin thinks the former St. Sebastian's performer will make a solid contribution in this, his senior year.

Kirk has been on the JV squad the last two seasons, but he showed enough to the staff last year to lead Yovicsin to include him in his plans for the '59 campaign which begins with a home game against U. of Massachusetts on Sept. 26.

"Paul has good coordination and is a capable pass receiver," Yovicsin says. "With the experience he's had on the JV level, I think he's ready to give the varsity some help. Kirk is among the six ends listed in the 1959 Harvard football brochure.

The Newton native stands 5-11 and weighs 185 pounds.

Harvard has 15 lettermen returning from last year's team which posted a 4-5 record overall, and finished sixth in the Ivy race with a 3-4 mark. Yovicsin lists rebuilding of his starting line as the top priority item in the pre-season sessions. Capt. Hank Keohane, left end, is the lone returnee from last year's forward wall.

The backfield — led by All-Ivy halfback Chet Boulris and dynamic little quarterback Charlie Ravenel — returns intact.

Kirk is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Kirk of 180 Franklin Street, Newton.

Crystal Lake Breaks Swim Attendance

Newton's popular Crystal Lake closes its 1959 season on Labor Day, and unofficial figures from the Recreation Department indicate the attendance will outstrip last year's total.

A week ago Crystal Lake reopened for swimming following a week's shutdown. Commissioner C. Evan Johnson had ordered the Lake closed Aug. 20, after water tests conducted by the Health Department proved unsatisfactory.

Meanwhile the Recreation Department, in cooperation with Dr. Harry Phillips, Director of the Health Department, announced it would use chlorine tablets in the water as an added safeguard on an experimental basis.

Officials pointed out this is an added precaution designed to safeguard the health of swimmers.

Airman Ends 300 Mile Paddle on MTA

A Newton Air Force man was resting at the summer home of his parents in Plymouth after a 300-odd mile paddle in a home-made kayak from Rome, N. Y., to Newport, R. I.

Robert McKnight, 23, Airman third class attached to Griffs AF Base, left Aug. 18 on his modern odyssey, intending to reach Plymouth by Labor Day.

McKnight, son of Mr. and Mrs. George G. McKnight, built the 11-foot boat in the base hobby shop for $33. After he left Rome, he paddled down the Erie Canal, to the Hudson River and New York City. He skirted the Atlantic Ocean side of Long Island sound and headed for Cape Cod Canal.

But a punishing chop off Newport at midday Monday threatened to smash the frail craft on which he expected to spend most of his 30-day furlough.

So he landed on Seal Rock, a quarter of a mile off shore. "It was the wisest thing to do," Airman McKnight explained after he got home.

"I was taking water faster than the boat could stand it, and one of the stringers along the water line had broken."

A lobsterman picked him up in Newport, where he got a ride on the ferry to the mainland in Providence.

The airman's father is a local distributor for a Providence brewery and one of the brewery trucks took him and his kayak to a West Roxbury warehouse.

From there he finished the trip home on the MTA.

Pelletier Brothers Are Tops For Topping Floors

A well-known firm of home beautifiers is Pelletier Brothers of 15 Spruce street in Waltham, phone TW 3-2070, who specialize in sanding, waxing and laying of new floors.

Paul Pelletier, proprietor, his brother Henry, and their staff of expert workers have won an enviable reputation for speedy refinishing of floors, completing high class work so rapidly that the homeowner is caused little inconvenience, and no cleaning up after the work is finished.

Vacuum cleaners on the sanding machines pick up most of the dust which formerly plagued floor men. In addition, the floors Pelletier Brothers refinish are vacuumed after each finishing coat so that in one or two days time a home can have sparkling fresh floors with scarcely any interruption in use.

After machine sanding, floors are finished with two coats of Synthacote, with steel wool buffing after each coat, and are then waxed and buffed with the famed Butcher's paste wax, leaving them like new, and good for long years of use.

And not only for years of use, but years of happiness, since a fine floor is the real foundation for the beauty of any room, and its owner's joy, and pride.

New floors are laid expertly, in new houses and over the old dingy floors in older homes. The home owner has full choice of type of wood, though oak still is considered tops, and selects and buys exactly the type floors wanted.

Then Paul Pelletier lays the new flooring, and finishes it so that it is ready for a lifetime of use.

Estimates on all this work are cheerfully given at the home owners' convenience, and a call to TW 3-2070 will bring quick, courteous attention.

Living With Your Heart

("Living With Your Heart" is a weekly public service of the Massachusetts Heart Association.)

A light case of angina pectoris could be the best friend a heart patient ever had. In fact, it could save his life. The pain of angina, like any other pain, is one of nature's danger signals. It tells the patient his heart muscle is suffering from fleeting starvation. Nitroglycerine can control the pains of ordinary angina; modified living habits and the body's wonderful capacity to rebuild around a damaged area of the circulation may prevent severe or fatal heart attacks.

Angina pectoris usually starts as an oppressive pain under the breastbone, which may spread to one or sometimes both arms. It is frightening, but if it is angina it subsides. It may return again in minutes, days or months. What has happened to the person who suffers angina pectoris?

His heart muscle is aching because not enough blood has reached some area to keep it adequately fueled with the oxygen which gives it nourishment. The pain represents the heart's quick and indignant clamor.

The heart is suffering this momentary starvation simply because the blood vessels have narrowed and thickened to the point where they cannot carry enough blood to the heart, which demands a rich and continuous supply to do its work.

The first thing angina patients do is to take nitroglycerine pills. Placed under the tongue, they act quickly to dilate the narrowed vessels and bring relief. Some take it in advance of demanding or highly emotional occasions.

An initial angina attack is followed by the doctor's advice to take it easy, but not necessarily in bed. Meanwhile the body is at work to drive additional "roads" in the form of collateral circulation by passing the affected area and bringing a more adequate blood supply to the heart; this is one of Nature's most miraculous manifestations within the human body. There have been many instances of major bloodstreams being closed and such a superb collateral circulation set up that the victim—who may have died of other causes many years later—never knew his condition.

Gradually, the angina patient learns how much he can safely do. Winter is his worst season, for cold weather contracts the small vessels at the body's surface and makes the heart work harder—setting up a demand for more oxygen. Angina patients are advised to avoid really severe weather, to eat small meals, to take the business of living in moderation and to keep their weight under control.

morning and will put in a full day, finishing at 3:05 p.m.

School officials emphasized that the 8th and 9th grade pupils at the Meadowbrook and Weeks Junior High School do not report until Thursday morning.

All other junior high school youngsters are scheduled to put in appearance at the listed times on Wednesday.

At the high school sophomores report for a full day on Thursday and Juniors and seniors for a full day on Friday.

A breakdown of Newton's anticipated public school enrollment is as follows: elementary schools — 9875 children; junior high schools — 3981; senior high school — 3137. Enrollment figures for the last school year were: elementary school — 9931; junior high schools — 3555; and senior high school — 3090.

A surprising aspect to the figures is that school authorities presently anticipate that the elementary enrollment next week will be slightly below that of last year.

The likelihood is, however, that the elementary school figures will be revised upwards during the next few weeks and may well reach 10,000.

Meanwhile, children of various ages are making the most of the pleasures of their final week of vacation, and thousands of Newton families who have spent the summer at beach, mountain and country will start homeward this week-end.

Sections of the city, which have been unusually quiet with many families away during the summer season, will take on greater activity early next week as parents and children alike make ready for the annual trek back to school.

Four From Here Are Delegates

Four young women from Newton are delegates to the convention of the International Federation of Notre Dame de Namur alumnae at the Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D.C.

The delegates, all graduates of St. Bernard's High School, are the Misses Mary Macerillo, Joan Johnson, Mary J. Devane, and Mary Beth Horan.

Miss Devane is a member of the International Board of Management and treasurer-elect of the Massachusetts Chapter of the Notre Dame de Namur Federation.

trator of Motor Vehicles, and an outstanding Republican who was seeking the post of Governor's Councillor, Merrill, by his action, caused a division in the Republican ranks that culminated with the election of a Democratic Governor's Councillor for the first time in the history of Newton.

"The Republican City Committee which Merrill chairs, has not spoken, has not been consulted, and to a large extent, wants no part of its chairman. He, with his usual arrogance, has ignored the members of his committee and taken it upon himself to make it appear that he speaks for them."

"An apology is due the committee together with his resignation."

The chairman of my Republican City Committee should not be given the role of "hatchet man" acting for the grey machine which has found an agent to foster the cause of Donald L. Gibbs for Mayor," Fazio concluded.

"Moore managed, together with Howard Whitmore, Jr., the Theodore Lockwood campaign for reelection to the office of Mayor in 1949," Fazio stated.

"He took an active part in the campaigns of former Senator Richard H. Lee and in the campaign of Christian A. Herter, Jr., for the Massachusetts House of Representatives."

"It is well known from Pittsfield to Provincetown that Moore was the Republican who worked closely with the late Attorney General George Fingold for six years and that he managed his three successful campaigns for Attorney General and succeeded in making Fingold the Republican nominee for Governor in 1938," Fazio declared.

"It is my recollection that Moore, a past director of the Middlesex Republican Club, replaced former Mayor Theodore Lockwood in that capacity. Among other accomplishments Moore was instrumental in bringing the former Republican National Committee Chairman, Meade Alcorn, to Newton in the Spring of 1958 where Alcorn addressed a convocation of Republicans from 19 cities and towns representing Suffolk, Middlesex, and Norfolk counties. This was considered by most Republicans to be one of the most successful affairs ever held in the area."

"Indignant though I am at the unwarranted attack against Moore made by Merrill — a man elected to further the cause of a unified Republican party in Newton — I am not surprised. Once again Merrill is trading on his title for personal reasons. It was only in 1958 that Merrill openly campaigned while Republican City Chairman, against Rudolph King, former Registrator of Motor Vehicles, and an outstanding Republican who was seeking the post of Governor's Councillor, Merrill, by his action, caused a division in the Republican ranks that culminated with the election of a Democratic Governor's Councillor for the first time in the history of Newton.

"The Republican City Committee which Merrill chairs, has not spoken, has not been consulted, and to a large extent, wants no part of its chairman. He, with his usual arrogance, has ignored the members of his committee and taken it upon himself to make it appear that he speaks for them."

"An apology is due the committee together with his resignation."

The chairman of my Republican City Committee should not be given the role of "hatchet man" acting for the grey machine which has found an agent to foster the cause of Donald L. Gibbs for Mayor," Fazio concluded.

"Moore managed, together with Howard Whitmore, Jr., the Theodore Lockwood campaign for reelection to the office of Mayor in 1949," Fazio stated.

"He took an active part in the campaigns of former Senator Richard H. Lee and in the campaign of Christian A. Herter, Jr., for the Massachusetts House of Representatives."

"It is well known from Pittsfield to Provincetown that Moore was the Republican who worked closely with the late Attorney General George Fingold for six years and that he managed his three successful campaigns for Attorney General and succeeded in making Fingold the Republican nominee for Governor in 1938," Fazio declared.

"It is my recollection that Moore, a past director of the Middlesex Republican Club, replaced former Mayor Theodore Lockwood in that capacity. Among other accomplishments Moore was instrumental in bringing the former Republican National Committee Chairman, Meade Alcorn, to Newton in the Spring of 1958 where Alcorn addressed a convocation of Republicans from 19 cities and towns representing Suffolk, Middlesex, and Norfolk counties. This was considered by most Republicans to be one of the most successful affairs ever held in the area."

"Indignant though I am at the unwarranted attack against Moore made by Merrill — a man elected to further the cause of a unified Republican party in Newton — I am not surprised. Once again Merrill is trading on his title for personal reasons. It was only in 1958 that Merrill openly campaigned while Republican City Chairman, against Rudolph King, former Registrator of Motor Vehicles, and an outstanding Republican who was seeking the post of Governor's Councillor, Merrill, by his action, caused a division in the Republican ranks that culminated with the election of a Democratic Governor's Councillor for the first time in the history of Newton.

"The Republican City Committee which Merrill chairs, has not spoken, has not been consulted, and to a large extent, wants no part of its chairman. He, with his usual arrogance, has ignored the members of his committee and taken it upon himself to make it appear that he speaks for them."

"An apology is due the committee together with his resignation."

The chairman of my Republican City Committee should not be given the role of "hatchet man" acting for the grey machine which has found an agent to foster the cause of Donald L. Gibbs for Mayor," Fazio concluded.

Sharks And Currents For 34th Birthday

There are, admittedly, various ways to celebrate one's birthday.

But Capt. Stuart Evans of Newton, a Ft. McArthur signal officer, chose to spend his 34th birthday swimming the 25-mile channel from Santa Catalina Island to San Pedro, Cal.

Capt. Evans spent his birthday battling sharks and currents.

It took him 20 hours and 55 minutes, almost double the record of 10 hours, 49 minutes for the channel swim held by Mrs. Greta Anderson of Long Beach, California.

Newton Court Bill Sped By Legislature

The Massachusetts Legislature this week sped toward Governor Foster Furcolo's desk the bill to make the Newton District Court full time.

The Newton court, where Judge Donald E. Mayberry presides, was deleted from a 1956 act which elevated 27 district courts to full time status. Judges of full time courts receive $14,000 annually.

In 1957 a similar bill failed to pass.

However, last week the bill moved smoothly through the House and then through the Senate without debate.

Police Hunt 2 Hit-Runners

Newton police were investigating two hit-and-run auto accidents this week, one involving a truck which struck a standing car.

Ralph W. Hamilton of Arlington reported his car was halted for a traffic light on Centre St., Newton Centre, when he was struck from behind by a truck. He said the truck backed and sped down Cyprus St., before he could get the license.

Hamilton complained of injuries and said he would see a doctor.

Sidney Hanks of 33 Round Brook Rd., Newton Highlands, reported that a two-tone grey sedan sideswiped his car at Walnut and Floral Sts. in Newton Highlands, and failed to stop.

Youth Steals Doctor's Bag

A heavy set youth about 20, wearing a white T shirt and dark trousers was seen stealing a bag containing medical instruments and drugs from the car of Dr. Arthur S. Newman of 475 Washington St., Newton.

The bag and contents, valued at about $250, was stolen from the car parked near the doctor's office. A citizen who reported the theft said the thief was dark haired and had a dark complexion.

Oak Hill School Problem Develops Ire Of Parents

With smiling young Newton children trooping happily back to school and assignments, books, teachers and other related items of elementary and secondary education, the parents of some 72 pupils of the Oak Hill School, are developing a slow burn over the transportation system for their youngsters, and the location of their classes.

These parents have been long-suffering in this respect and face the start of another school year with some concern. One of these parents, Mrs. Alexander M. Tanger, of 35 Fox Lane, Newton Centre, a mother of three children in the Newton school system, one of whom, a girl of 11 years, will be involved in the Oak Hill shift, has written an open letter to the Newton School Committee.

The letter is published in full in today's Graphic, as follows:

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen: I know that I express a collective opinion when I say that we parents of the Oak Hill School feel that our school committee has failed us. Your represent our power to keep Newton's education! star shining, and when any physical facilities are consistently inadequate for the needs of that particular community, year in and year out, growing from bad to worse, then to what other governing body do we turn for responsibility?

True, we have been the subject of national prominence in the last few years, but apparently the pendulum is beginning to swing the other way. If we point to you with pride when the honors are ours, then we have every right to do so when the full scope of our problem has been neglected.

Our sixth grade is going to be transported by bus approximately eleven miles a day to a school on the other side of the city (the eleven mile route being the only comparatively safe one.) We

Sacred Heart College To Open With Largest Class

One hundred and seventy-four freshmen will arrive at Newton College of the Sacred Heart next Wednesday, September 16, to become oriented before taking up active studies on Monday, September 21.

More than 500 students will be enrolled this year at the Newton college, the largest since the school was founded in 1946. They will come from 19 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Canadian provinces of Quebec and Manitoba, Cuba and Venezuela.

29% of the class, New England, too, has lost its traditional position as home for the majority of Newton freshmen. Although 35% of the class come from four New England states, more than 42% live in the Middle Atlantic states.

Freshmen will enjoy discovering among their classmates twins from Havana. But Graciela and Hortensia Bacardi will find themselves outnumbered by three sets of upper-class twins, one in each class. Of the eight students entering with honors three are from New England: Mary Ann Droney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Droney of Cambridge; Susan McAuliffe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. McAuliffe of Cambridge.

However, they stand second to New York State, whose 51 residents make up

Democratic State Record Shows Few Accomplishments

The record the Democratic party will have to show, when the regular 1959 legislative session comes to a close, will be far from an impressive one. That is a matter which is causing a great deal of concern for thoughtful Democratic leaders and is lifting Republican hopes for the 1960 election.

GOP strategy next year will be to call upon the Democrats to tell the people of Massachusetts what they accomplished the first time they were in complete control of every branch of the State government.

In the past the Democrats invariably have been able to blame the Republicans either for what was or wasn't done.

Even when there was a Democratic Governor and a Democratic House, the Democrats still were able to blast a Republican Senate as the graveyard in which many bills were buried.

There were years when measures were passed by the Demo-

Next Time Wait For Cabbie

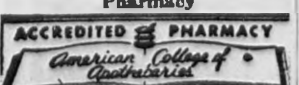

Two Newton youths found it rather expensive to take a taxi ride from Newton Centre to Natick — without bothering to wait for the driver.

According to police, the pair took a cab belonging to Holden's Taxi Service, 30 Union street, just before midnight. They were caught in Natick 40 minutes later.

John Hall, 18, was fined $200 and given a suspended 10 day jail term; his passenger Lawrence Megliola, 18, was fined $100. Both pleaded guilty in Natick district court.

Mayor, Alderman, School Board, Lively Election Fights Now Loom

Teachers Greeted At Luncheon

Newton teachers, regulars and newcomers, school and city officials, took part in a most successful orientation meeting, and luncheon on Thursday, held prior to the opening of schools here. 188 new teachers will face classes in Newton schools this year.

Superintendent of Schools Eric N. Dennard was the principal speaker and advised the incoming members of the school faculties of their relationships with school and community.

Superintendent Dennard told his listeners that he found the people of Newton particularly concerned with education and said that he had never worked in a community where people are more interested in an excellent civic government and good school system than in Newton.

He also praised the Newton school committee and pointed out that members of the committee have done a great deal to provide good progress in education in local schools. He said that Newton school committee members are not interested in anything but good education for the children of the city.

Haskell C. Freedman, chairman of the school committee, also was a speaker. He gave credit to many local organizations including the PTA, Newton League of Women Voters, and others, for constantly striving for better conditions in local schools. He praised the community interest and support for education in Newton.

Other school committee guests at the meeting and luncheon included, Mrs. Genevieve P. O'neley, Mrs. Grace C. Whitmore and John P. Cochran.

3-Candidate Struggle For Mayor; 6 Races For Board of Aldermen; 2 Battles For School Committee

Newton will be the scene of a number of political battles between now and November 3 election.

That became evident as candidates for Mayor, the Board of Aldermen and the School Committee rushed to file their nomination signatures with the Board of Registrars before Tuesday's 5 p. m. deadline.

A three-man fight will be waged for the right to succeed Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., at the head of Newton's city government.

Five contests loom for election as Alderman-at-Large, one for Ward Alderman and two for positions on the School Committee.

A surprise development saw Louis H. Alter of 91 Woodchester drive, Chestnut Hill, file nomination papers as a candidate against School Committee Chairman Haskell C. Freedman for election as the School Board member from Ward 6.

Freedman, who has a big following throughout the city, specially in PTA groups, is considered virtually unbeatable. An attempt was made earlier in the year to persuade him to run for Mayor.

Contenders in a three-way majority race for the position Mayor Whitmore will relinquish at the end of the year are State Senator Donald L. Gibbs, Alderman Leo M. Cannon and Norman E. Moore, a member of the State Alcohol Beverage Control Commission.

Battles now shape up for election as Alderman-at-Large in Wards 2, 3, 4, 6 and 8. Former Alderman Alfred R. Guzzi is challenging Aldermen Winslow C. Auryansen and William J. Robinson for election as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 2. Guzzi lives at 9 Joseph road, Robinson at 116 Atwood avenue and Auryansen at 27 Jenison street, all of Newtonville.

Aldermen John P. Nixon and Melvin Daniel, standing for re-election as Aldermen-at-Large from Ward 3, are being opposed by Nelson M. Silk of 58 Randlett park, West Newton. Nixon resides at 38 Crestwood road and Daniel at 32 Oldham road, both in West Newton.

A three-man race for two posts as Alderman-at-Large is taking shape in Ward 4. There Alderman Earle D. Wood and Harry H. Nam Jr., both seeking re-election to another term, are opposed by Richard P. Brennan of 6 Sharon avenue, Auburndale. Wood resides at 20 Duffield road, Auburndale, and Nam at 157 Wolcott street, Auburndale.

A lively four-man struggle looms for the two seats as Alderman-at-Large in Ward 6. Aldermen William P. Ripley and Charles F. Hovey both are standing for re-election. In the field against them are Walter P. Muther, executive director of the Newton Taxpayers' Association, and Ernest F. Dietz, well known civic leader.

Ripley lives at 83 Pleasant street, Newton Centre; Hovey at 190 Chestnut Hill road, Newton.

Newton's 6th Auto Fatality

Newton's sixth fatal highway accident of 1959 was recorded last week when an aged pedestrian was killed near 213 California street.

The victim was identified as Francisco I. Corderio, 72, residing at 138 Fifth street, Cambridge. A faded photograph found in his pocket identified the man as one listed on a Cambridge police teletype message as missing.

Corderio, who was pronounced dead on arrival at Newton-Wellesley Hospital, arrived in this country a week ago from the Azores.

Watertown cab driver Edward J. Vaughan, 24, told Newton police he jammed on his brakes when his lights picked up a pedestrian walking in the middle of the street in a westerly direction, rather than merely crossing the street.

The cab driver said his car went into a skid and struck the man. Last rites were administered by Rev. John R. Giggi of St. Philip Neri Church, Waban.

School Bells Ring

Records Broken As 17,000 Go To Classes

All records are being broken this year, and several innovations are being introduced, as 17,000 boys and girls ended their vacation this week in Newton.

The nearly 10,000 elementary pupils went to classrooms and met their teachers yesterday.

The same happened to many junior high school students. The high school sophomores report today, and tomorrow the juniors and seniors start their classes.

Indications are that the school population this year is 415 over last year. The High School, expected to have 3137 students, goes under the new House Plan this Fall, designed to make a big school's pupils feel they are attending a smaller one.

Another innovation is the use of program cards which have been marked by a computing machine instead of pencils.

Yesterday was the first formal school day at the new Mason-Rice School, as well as the new addition at Claflin School.

The steel strike delayed completion of the Spaulding

School addition, and as a result its 200 fifth and sixth graders will go to classes in three different schools for the time being.

Newton Has Fine Holiday Traffic Mark

Newton fared well over the Labor Day holiday weekend as far as traffic violations were concerned.

Police Chief Philip Purcell reported there were 162 motorists stopped during the four-day period, but only one was arrested. They involved a drunk driving charge.

Seventy-three will receive court summonses, and 89 were given warnings.

The most serious accident involved two girls hospitalized after their car hit a tree Sunday in West Newton. Eleanor Brown, 17, of Waltham, suffered a fractured jaw, and her passenger, Katherine Keefe, 17, of 41 Princess road, West Newton, a facial injury.

"We're Building" -- Malone

Orange Gridders Spirited

If spirit and determination are a yardstick, new Head Coach Bob Malone's Newton High School football team is headed for a successful season.

"This group has as much spirit and determination as any I've seen at Newton," Malone said.

"For four years as line coach, I had pretty good lines, some darn good individual linemen. Now that I'm head coach, we have nothing up front."

Coach Malone has 130 candidates for the Orange squad. But only five boys have had some experience.

"There is not a starter in the lot," Malone went on. "In fact so many of the '58 squad graduated we did not elect a captain for '59 and will wait until just before the start of the first game.

"Maybe we could say we are building. Nearly half of our squad is made up of sophomores, 40, then there are 45 juniors and 35 seniors."

Malone, a science teacher, captained the 1944 Gloucester High team and played football at Boston University. He succeeds Harold (Bud) Hawkes who resigned to become one of the six new house masters under a plan introduced this Fall at Newton High.

Under Malone, the Tigers will operate from the winged T-formation again this year, but with a more open attack.

The Orange attack is certain to contain plenty of aeriels. And Malone has enough quarterback depth to keep any coach happy. Most impressive in early practice have been Tony Lavelly, Paul Guzzi and Lefty George Kerr, who came up from the jayvees.

But the workouts have shown a weakness — pass catchers. Coach Malone and his aides have their work cut out for them to train the ends and backs to keep that pigskin from dribbling through fingers or bouncing off shoulder pads.

Lars Bjork, a junior originally expected to play tackle or end, has been shifted to guard. And Ron Marino, formerly a halfback, has been placed at offensive end as Malone seeks to find a good line combination, his greatest need.

Bob Burke, another JV graduate, is working on the other first team end.

Rich Seeks Re-election As Alderman

Alderman Paul S. Rich of 278 Franklin street, Newton today announced that he would be a candidate for re-election as Ward 7 Alderman. In his statement Rich said, "Despite the urging of many friends and supporters, I have, after careful consideration, decided that the pressure of my law practice makes it impossible to consider seeking the full time office of Mayor of Newton."

"I would however like to express my appreciation to

Music School To Stress Rote To Note Method

Formation of the Little Musicians Music School will come as welcome news to parents who are eager for their youngsters to acquire a thorough background in music.

Mrs. Marion Sutcliffe of 345 Winchester St., Newton Highlands, announces the school is training children from the age of three to 12 in the New England Conservatory Method "rote-to-note" process.

This includes singing activities, ear training and rhythm band. This fundamental training in music provides an excellent and necessary background for instrumental playing and voice training, according to Mrs. Sutcliffe, who is trained as a music teacher in public schools.

The School also provides private or class lessons for children of all ages, taught by trained musicians. Pick-up service is available. The school sessions begin Sept. 19. For further information please call Bigelow 4-7655.

Temple Sinai Begins 20th School Year

The Temple Sinai Religious School opens its 20th year when regular sessions from kindergarten through Grade 10 (Confirmation) resume this Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 12-13.

Enrollment of new pupils will continue under direction of Dr. Beryl D. Cohen, Rabbi of Temple Sinai, and the Principal, Miss Esther D. Starr. Midweek Hebrew classes also will resume, with Bar Mitzvah an integral part of the curriculum.

Temple Sinai again will hold its High Holy Day services in the John Hancock Hall in Boston. These larger facilities make it possible for children of the religious school, 13 to 18, to accompany their parents in family groups at worship. The school provides special services for those too young to join adults in worship.

Temple Sinai is located at Coolidge Corner in Brookline and is reached by car, MTA, or school bus service available for those who desire it. Inquiries about the school are invited.

Election Fights War m Up

Chestnut Hill; Dietz at 93 Hancock street, Newton Centre; and Muther at 132 Gibbs street, Newton Centre.

In Ward 8, Aldermanic President Wendell R. Bauckman and Alderman Charles H. Morang have John W. McBarrow seeking to unseat one of them. Bauckman lives at 336 Dedham street, Newton Centre; Morang at 26 Chinian path, Oak Hill; and McBarrow at 264 Winchester street, Newton Highlands.

The lone contest for election as Ward Alderman will be in Ward 6 where Alderman Hirsch Sharf is opposed by Charles E. Holly of 43 Bow road, Chestnut Hill; Sandford A. Kowal of 23 Stafford road, Chestnut Hill; and Albert R. Mezzoff of 104 Manet road, Chestnut Hill.

The second School Board clash is for the seat from Ward 8 where School Committee member Spencer F. Deming of 67 Carl street, Newton Highlands, is being challenged by David Krongard of 65 Indian Ridge road, Oak Hill; and Maurice Epstein of 80 Olde Field road, Oak Hill.

Miss Adelaide B. Ball, who was defeated two years ago for re-election as Ward Alderman, is certain of returning to the Aldermanic Board next January as an Alderman-at-Large. She was the only person to file nomination papers as a candidate for the post being vacated by Alderman Leo M. Cannon who is relinquishing his seat to run for Mayor.

Carleton P. Merrill, who has been called upon by supporters of Norman E. Moore to resign as chairman of the Republican City Committee, is unopposed for re-election as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 1.

Alderman Franklin N. Flaschner will be re-elected as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 5, and Harry V. Walen of 6 Floral street, Newton Highlands, will go into office with him. They are the only candidates to file in the ward.

Unopposed for re-election as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 7 are William M. Powers of 124 Gramere street and John P. McCarthy of 9 Eldredge street.

Ward Aldermen who will be returned to office without a contest are Joseph G. Bradley in Ward 1, George J. Hicks in Ward 2, Charles H. Cosgrove in Ward 3, Warren A. Sutherland in Ward 4, William E. Prentice in Ward 5, Paul School Problem-

are told that after nearly two months of this procedure (and how can we believe the promise this time), these 72 children will then be transported by bus to another school, much closer—but still not their own. One third of the same sixth grade class spent last year in still a different school (a junior high) as a fifth grade.

Certainly, some of these children will remain imperious to changes and unmoved by lack of roots. Others will reflect the constant changes in poor behavior and lack of concentration, providing a chore for their teachers and a nuisance to other children. This then is their preparation for mingling with their peers the following year in junior high—another change of school.

Is this an attractive situation to offer teachers? Is this consistent with Newton quality? Perhaps these are the facts that require a little prominence!

No, we cannot point to other cities where the situation is much worse. They do not have our reputation for previous excellence. What is more, as you and I tell our children when they make reference to another, "You are my primary responsibility at this time—and I have every right to expect of you what is just and proper!"

As parents we know that our school committee is capable of putting up a good, solid fight when its cause is honorable. We have seen evidence of that lately. We parents, however, do not have the authority to contact contractors who do not produce on schedule.

We do not have facilities for vast statistical surveys so that proper additions will turn up in proper places. It is a totally difficult job at best—but that, ladies and gentlemen, is why, in good faith, we voted for you!

So when our sixth graders (and this grade has been housed other than in its own school for eleven out of the past fourteen years) start each day's eleven mile bus trip, we will not think kindly of those who allowed this situation to take place in what we like to term first-rate, education-minded, facility-conscious, safety-aware Newton!

Very truly yours,
Brenda R. Tanger

New Power At The Wheel

In the fabled tale of childhood, all the King's horses and all the King's men couldn't put Humpty Dumpty together again. But Registrar Clement A. Riley's men and patrol cars performed a King-sized service over the Labor Day week-end to help prevent our motoring Humpty Dumptys from splashing themselves, and others, over Bay State highways.

Yet, despite the holiday army of 10,000 lawmen on the alert, some autoists managed to hurl themselves into the statistic column. Even one life wasted is too much.

Horses and men, horsepower and manpower, have combined to turn one-time pleasure vehicles into engines of destruction, and highways intended for pleasure and enjoyment into channels of mashed machines and bodies.

Horsepower and manpower join forces to make Humpty Dumpty of thousands of motor car operators, passengers and pedestrians. Many of them can't be put together again — at least, not on this earth.

Divine Power — not an optional accessory in any of today's powerful, bagged motor cars — may yet be the answer to safety on the highway. Driving with Divine Power, the Power of God, which is the power of gentleness, tolerance, consideration, and love of one another may restore sanity to motoring.

Divine Power lifts the foot on the accelerator instead of thrusting it down; it slows the car at an intersection instead of throttling it across to beat a light; it gives the other fellow the right of way gracefully, it respects the rights — and the lives — of children at play and fellow humans on foot.

Too many horses under the hood, too many man gimmicks to ease the feel of power and speed, to smooth the thrust of the horses, and give the lie to the climbing needle on the speedometer, and too little Divine Power in the driver add up to tales of horror, injury and death on what is termed a "holiday."

All of our horses under the hood, all of our skilled men in the factories, and the dedicated men in uniform on holiday patrol, cannot prevent Humpty Dumpty from falling to destruction. They cannot put them together again in many instances. They cannot ease the sorrow of loved ones.

Divine Power in the driver may be the answer where legislation, preaching, warnings and the full impact of the law enforcement bodies are ignored or yawned at. Horses and men have failed. As a last resort let us turn to Divine Power which must be acquired by the driver. It cannot be attached to the machine.

It is neither an extra nor an accessory on the modern car. It is an accomplishment on the part of the human behind the wheel.

Political Highlights

the Republican Senate in order to embarrass the members of that body and force them to kill proposals in which certain groups were interested.

This year it has been different. This year total responsibility has rested on Democratic shoulders, and the truth is that it hasn't rested too easily.

The Democrats have a member of their party sitting in the Governor's chair. They have enough votes in each branch of the Legislature to enact into law any measure on which they can present a united front. The Republicans, on the other hand, don't have enough voting strength in either the House or the Senate to order a window opened if the Democrats want to keep it closed.

So what have the Democrats to show for the use of the great power with which the people of Massachusetts vested them in last year's election and for the eight months of unprecedented rule of the State government by their party?

Early in the year they adopted the State withholding tax system following a clash between the Democratic House and the Democratic Senate which started the friction that has existed since then between the two legislative chambers.

Largely as a result of the determined efforts by Senate President John E. Powers, the Legislature has held the line against the enactment of any new or additional taxes.

Bills have been adopted which will liberalize benefits for the jobless and for injured workers but which also will make it more difficult for business and industry to operate in Massachusetts and which may well hamper efforts to provide increased employment opportunities needed by a growing population.

Again it was Powers who endeavored to work out some compromise between labor and industry and to find some meeting ground between the two.

The House has placed its stamp of approval upon a bill to bring back Beacon — a measure which may or may not find its way to eventual enactment. If it does it will be an accomplishment of very dubious political value.

The Democrats have spent more time this year feuding, fighting and squabbling among themselves than they have in battling the Republicans. That has been perhaps the most damaging development from a Democratic standpoint. The average citizen can hardly be blamed if he wonders about the seeming inability of elected Democratic officeholders to get along with each other.

Where Governor Furolo would be expected to be drawing a regular bead on Republican heads, some of his sharpest thrusts have been aimed instead at legislative leaders in his own party.

Furolo at times has assumed the role of political lone wolf, causing observers to wonder if he was endeavoring to divorce himself from the Democratic Legislature.

Whether he was or not, the fact is that he will have to stand pretty much on the Democratic record, just as will the Democratic legislators.

Some of the severest criticism of the policies of a Democratic Governor has been voiced by a Democratic Lieutenant Governor who would like to be Governor.

That is the picture which confronts the Democrats after they have been running things on Beacon Hill for eight months — or exactly one-third of Governor Furolo's second term.

Perhaps the picture will be changed by the happenings at the special legislative session the Governor intends to call a few weeks from now.

Possibly, with the shadow of the 1960 election looming over them, the Democrats will put aside their own differences next year, forget their feuds and work together with some show of party unity and harmony.

The record to date, however, is not one in which Democratic candidates could stand very solidly or securely a year from now.

Unless the Democrats can come up with some positive program — unless they can produce some major achievement — they'll have a hard time disproving the Republican claim that they can't accomplish anything. As matters stand now, they seem headed for trouble in next year's election.

TELEVIEWING THE NEWS

By LEE LOUMOS

With the appearance of Henry Fonda in the new TV western series, "The Deputy," this fall, another movie star hold-over has been won over to TV. Having an actor of Henry Fonda's ability in the starring role, the series has a chance to become one of the best. If not the best, of all the adult westerns on television. Fonda, who was born in Grand Island, Nebraska, began his acting career quite by accident during a visit to the Community Playhouse in Omaha when he was teased into reading a role during a rehearsal. From then on he was sold on acting and went from the Playhouse to Broadway and from his Broadway hit, "The Farmer Takes a Wife" to Hollywood.

In World War II Fonda served in the U. S. Navy as assistant operations officer and air combat intelligence officer in the Central Pacific. He received the Bronze Star and the Presidential Citation and was discharged in 1945. He is an enthusiastic sportsman, enjoying tennis, swimming, horseback riding, handball, hunting, fishing and archery. With Henry Fonda playing the lead role in "The Deputy," viewers can be assured of fine acting.

And when you buy a Sylvania TV set, you have the assurance that no finer set is available. Its fidelity of picture and sound is outstanding and the price of Sylvania is no more than that of inferior TV sets. Come in for a demonstration soon.

Harry L. Walen Seeks Election As Alderman

Harry L. Walen of 6 Floral street, Newton Highlands, has filed nomination papers as a candidate for election as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 5.

Mr. Walen, who is president of the Newton Community Chest and Council, Inc., also has served as vice president of the Family Service Bureau.

He has acted as chairman of the Disaster Preparedness and Relief Committee of the Newton Chapter of the Red Cross and deputy chief warden for schools in the Newton civil defense department.

Walen has served as chairman of the Board of Deacons of the Newton Highlands Congregational Church and has given more than 10 years of service as scoutmaster, assistant scoutmaster, troop committeeman in the Boy Scouts.

A graduate of Newton High School and an honor graduate of Harvard College, Walen also holds a master of arts degree from Harvard.

He is connected with Ginn and Company, a national textbook publishing firm which has its home office in Boston.

In the past he has been a teacher and assistant principal at the Newton High School. He is married and the father of three sons, Benson, a senior at Newton High School; Kimball, a student at Weeks Junior High School, and Robert, a pupil at the Hyde School.

Two years ago, Walen was a candidate for the School Committee.

In announcing his candidacy for the Aldermanic Board, Mr. Walen stated:

"When friends suggested that I become a candidate for the aldermanic chair to be vacated by Edwin A. Terkelsen, who has served Newton with outstanding ability and faithfulness for five terms as alderman-at-large from Ward 5. I saw an opportunity to carry my concern for Newton's problems in an era of change into the city government.

"My interest in and knowledge of Newton and my past and current experience in the service of the city and in city-wide civic organizations should give a useful background for aldermanic work. The first-hand knowledge of other cities and their problems I have gained through business travel in many parts of the United States provide a useful source of comparison and reference for considering Newton's problems."

Baton Twirling Classes Start Thursday, Sept. 16

Mrs. Marjorie Gilbert, who is world famous in her field and is holder of many national titles in baton twirling, will again teach classes in baton twirling and drum majoring at the Newton Community Center this fall.

Registration for the classes starts today, with regular class schedules beginning on Thursday, Sept. 17. Because of the great popularity of these classes which are necessarily limited to working group size, enrollments will be accepted in order of application.

Several members of last season's Community Center baton groups won honors in state and regional contests and in television contests and the costumed Drill and Marching Team was one of the highlights of the Newton Memorial Day parade.

Mrs. Gilbert is a partner in the Gilbert-McNeil School of Baton in Watertown, has many years of teaching experience not only in this area but also in New York, Washington and Wisconsin. As a team called the "Whirling Dervishes", she and Mr. McNeil have appeared throughout the United States and Canada for regional festivals, TV, and exclusive hotels. Listed among her many trophies are those awarded for State, Regional and National honors.

Mrs. Gilbert feels that baton twirling is an enjoyable skill for all children because it encourages poise, grace and physical dexterity, teaches the child to follow directions quickly and accurately, and builds showmanship and self-confidence in the presence of others.

The Newton Community Center is a non-profit, social agency and a Red Feather organization. For information, call BI 4-2260.

Merchants Open Sept. 13 Grid Season

The Newton Merchants semi-pro grid team, with 36 candidates working out diligently, raises the curtain on the 1959 season against the Charlestown Eagles this Sunday, Sept. 13, at Allison Park.

The Merchants have an attractive 10-game schedule, highlighted by an arc-light game against the Varsity Club of Quincy Oct. 10 at Wellesley High Field.

Head Coach Joe Scichlone is being aided this year in the coaching department by Al Kevorkian, former All-American at Harvard, and Lou Kallenback.

ERNEST F. DIETZ

Ernest Dietz Is Candidate For Alderman

Ernest F. Dietz of 93 Hancock avenue, Newton Centre, this week announced his candidacy for election as Alderman-at-large from Ward 6 which includes Newton Centre and Chestnut Hill.

Dietz declared that his decision to see this office was based upon the vital need by the Board of Aldermen for a full complement of qualified representatives from each ward who participate fully in its work.

He claimed that this has not been the case with a present incumbent from Ward 6.

In presenting his qualifications, Dietz stated that his broad experience in Newton community service has given him a background which should be of value to future Aldermanic policies and programs. This experience will enable him to adequately represent a wide variety of community attitudes, needs and desires, he believes.

A graduate of Newton High School, Dietz received his bachelor's degree in chemistry from the University of Michigan in 1934, followed by graduate work at Harvard University. His later community interests led him to complete graduate studies in education at Boston University where he received a master's degree in 1954.

During World War II, Dietz served four years in the U.S. Navy as an ordnance officer, and participated in the preliminary developments of the rocket program.

Mayor Howard Whitmore Jr. appointed Dietz, a building maintenance and decorating contractor to his Mayor's Advisory Committee on Construction of Public Buildings at the time of its formation about four years ago. As a member and later chairman of this Committee, Dietz has participated actively in the school building program in association with city department heads and the Public Buildings Committee of the Board of Aldermen. The Mayor's Advisory Committee was officially commended this year by the Board of Aldermen and by the Newton School Committee for its devoted service and invaluable contributions.

Mr. Dietz is now serving his second term as president of the Mason-Rice School P.T.A. and has recently retired as president of the Newton Civic Association. He has been a director of the Newton Centre Improvement Association for many years.

In 1937 Dietz was a member of the selection committee for "Young Man of the Year" of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, and in 1938 made the winning nomination. He has been an Advanced Gifts solicitor for the United Fund. He is past president of the University of Michigan Club of Boston and is a member of the Harvard Club of Boston. He is a director of many Greater Boston social service agencies.

He is married to the former Jean Pinanski of Brookline and they are parents of four children who attend the Newton Public Schools.

Dr. Macchi Gets $11,171 Cancer Research Grant

The National Cancer Institute of the United States Public Health Service has awarded an $11,171 grant to Dr. L. Alden Macchi of Newton Upper Falls, to continue research on "Steroidogenesis in Adrenocortical Tissue."

Dr. Macchi, formerly a Worcester resident, was a staff member of the Worcester Foundation for Experimental Biology in Shrewsbury, and assistant professor of physiology at Clark University, Worcester.

The research deals with the production of hormones by transplanted adrenocortical tissues.

Stellar Instruction For Children's Dance Courses

Following its usual practice of endeavoring to provide to all children in the community the best instruction available, the Newton Community Center will again offer this fall, lessons in all forms of dancing under the direction of Katherine Dickson. For many years she maintained her own studio in Harvard Square, Cambridge.

All dance classes for children will start Tuesday, Sept. 15 and will include instruction in pre-ballet for kindergartners and first-graders; beginners, intermediate and advanced tap; pre-school rhythms; ballroom dancing for sixth graders and for junior high students and for adults.

Registration for all children's classes will be made between Sept. 10th and Sept. 15th the Newton Community Center, 429 Cherry street, West Newton, enrollments being accepted in order of application.

Classes in ballet, tap and rhythms will include 30 lessons, with the usual recess at Christmas. The Community Center is a Red Feather, non-profit social agency.

Miss Dickson, a graduate of the Bouve School and of Boston University School of Education, has had a wide teaching experience. She has taught at many conventions of the Dance Teachers Club of Boston, the American Society of Teachers of Dancing, the New York Society of Teachers of Dancing, and the Dance Educators of America, and has instructed a group of Boston Public School teachers of physical education in the "new dances" as part of an inservice training program.

With the help of her competent studio staff, she has planned and produced many shows and exhibitions for numerous well known civic and educational institutions including a major part in the 1958 Boston Arts Festival.

Miss Dickson will be assisted by Miss Grace McKenna, who has been a member of the faculty of the Katherine Dickson Dance Studio for many years; Miss Phyllis Buda, and Miss Marianne Keefe, both of whom have had several years of teaching experience and are well equipped technically to deal with children of all ages.

36th Year At Meadowbrook Opens Sept. 16

The Meadowbrook School, of Weston, will inaugurate its 36th year when it resumes classes on Wednesday, September 16.

Charles Goodwin, recently appointed headmaster, will be in charge. He brings to the school an extensive background of study and travel.

A graduate of Brown University, 1947, he received his M.A. at Harvard and also studied at Johns Hopkins, Cornell, and Northwestern. For nine years he was a member of the faculty of the Gilman School in Baltimore, where he taught the elementary schools.

Newton members of the faculty include, Mrs. William Diman, teacher of Beginners' Class, and Mrs. Joseph R. Scott, of Auburndale, secretary to the headmaster.

Future Engineer

Kenneth J. Lappin of 349 California street, Newton, has been accepted for admittance to Wentworth Institute, Boston. Lappin, a graduate of Newton High School, is enrolled in Mechanical Design.

ONE MAN'S "PROBLEM"

too much Business!

This specialty store owner has good reason to smile. A few short months ago he almost sold out. Growing competition, the need for wider variety and better facilities kept profits dwindling. Today, his only "problem" is keeping up with the customers. What happened? A wise friend suggested a Small Business Loan at NEWTON-WALTHAM, the bank New Englanders depend on. A chat with a courteous Small Business Loan Officer revealed how a moderate loan could give him a fresh start—almost double his business in no time at all. The payments, arranged in 24 convenient monthly installments, he found surprisingly reasonable.

St. Bernard's Clinches National Twi BB Crown

St. Bernard's won the Newton Twi League National Division championship three games to one over the Newton Centre Townies.

St. Bernard's clinched the title Friday night as Wayne Murphy pitched a five-hitter to win the 2 to 0 shutout at the West Newton Common.

He pitched out of trouble on several occasions, and twice double plays ended big threats.

Bases on balls, once in the second inning and again in the third, set the stage for both runs scored by St. Bernard's. St. Bernard's lost the opening game, but evened the championship series at 1-all when Murphy unfurled a five-hitter as his mates banged out a 5 to 4 win on Aug. 28.

The Townies dropped down one in the third game when Dan Lombard unveiled a one-hitter to spark St. Bernard's to a 4 to 2 win on Aug. 31. Rain halted this game after five innings.

St. Bernard's and the Auburndale Merchants, winners of the American Division championship, will receive their trophies tonight at the annual Award Dinner at the Normandie Room in Norumbega Park.

Last year almost one and a half million people were injured in traffic accidents. That represents untold grief, mental anguish and physical suffering for those involved, as well as heartbreak and pain for their families and loved ones. There are many agencies on the national, state and local levels that are working unceasingly to educate both drivers and pedestrians in effective measures to promote highway safety and to combat the national disgrace of maiming and slaughtering our friends and neighbors.

The Registry men, your local police and our school teachers, as well as various local clubs and organizations, are attempting to do a conscientious job in alerting our population to traffic dangers. And yet, accidents persist. Why? Because the average person is all in favor of traffic safety, yet he is unwilling to discipline his own behavior or accept restrictions imposed on him. He is convinced that he is a safe and prudent driver and he feels that it's the other fellow's irresponsibility and recklessness that cause accidents.

IT'S TIME FOR EVERY DRIVER TO TAKE STOCK OF HIMSELF and vow to exercise good judgment when driving... to control his temper and his car... even when some driver might do something to him that is obviously the other fellow's fault. You're probably heading for an accident yourself if you lose your temper and set out to get even... like the unfortunate chap pictured below.

BE A SMART DRIVER AND STAY ALIVE—GIVE OTHERS THE SAME OPPORTUNITY!

"I was fighting mad..."

Too often the innocent may suffer when temper's at the wheel! When another driver gets your dander up—or you smoulder over some grievance back home—cool off! Losing your head can cost you control of your car and make an innocent party a victim of your spite. Last year traffic accidents brought death to 37,000 people, painful injuries to hundreds of thousands more. Too many were innocent victims of good drivers who momentarily let emotion blindfold judgment. When all your mind's on driving, you'll be a safer driver.

THE MOTORIST'S PRAYER

"O God, give me a firm hand and a sharp eye so that I will not injure any person while driving. Thou hast given life and I pray that none of my actions will take away or spoil the gift which comes from Thee.

"Grant that I may refrain from the kind of indulgence that would impair my skill and thus endanger the life and safety of my fellow man.

"Guide my automobile for the protection of others. And may I not miss, because of the love of speed, the beauty of the world which Thou hast created. May I always drive courteously, safely and with a full sense of the responsibility which lies in my hands. AMEN."

Daniel M. MacNeil, 64, of 38 Tennyson Rd., West Newton and Sagamore Beach, district Sales Manager of Wheeling Steel Corp., died last week after he was stricken with a heart attack at the Weston Golf Club.

A solemn requiem Mass was celebrated Saturday at St. Bernard's Church, West Newton, and interment was in Holyhood Cemetery, Brookline.

MacNeil was a native of Grand Narrows, N. S. He was with the steel company for the past 35 years, serving at one time as president of the New England Heating Trade Association. He was a member of the New England Iron League, the Boston City Club, and Canadian Club of Boston. He was a former director of the Catholic Alumni Sodality, and belonged to St. Bernard's Holy Name Society.

He was graduated from St. Francis Xavier College in 1917, and Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1921.

A solemn high Mass of requiem was offered Friday for Francis P. Murphy, 71, of 18 Paul street, Newton Centre, who operated a grocery store in New Bedford many years. Burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury.

Recently employed in the meat department of Dewey's Market in Newton, he was a Watertown resident for 10 years following the closing of the family business, Murphy's Super Market in New Bedford. He was born in that city. He was a member of the Atty. Horowitz stayed at the swank Hotel Ukraine in Moscow, which he said was probably its largest and best hotel. He and Mrs. Horowitz had a room with bath, plenty of hot water and the electric shaver worked.

But that was the exception of the tour. The normal was quite opposite. Actually, he found the Russians are not prepared for tourists, and every American becomes the object of as much attention as a celebrity.

During his visit, the noted attorney wrote a series of letters — from Moscow, from Smolensk, from Warsaw — while his observations were fresh.

He sent these letters back home and makes the text available to the Graphic. The following observations of Attorney Horowitz are from these letters.

To those Americans who contemplate a trip to Russia in the near future, he advises:

"If you expect luxury, stay home."

"If you expect fast service from waiters, stay home."

"If you expect the same food you get at first class hotels in the U.S.A., stay home."

"So far as hotel accommodations go, do not expect

Dance Registration Begins At Newton Conservatory

The Fall term registration at the Newton Conservatory of Dance and Related Arts is under way and will continue through Sept. 12, according to an announcement from Miss Vivian Bold, the director.
Registration is at the main studio, 1643 Beacon St., Waban, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and will be accepted by phone, Bigelow 4-1534. Classes begin next Monday.
Miss Bold has just returned from another extensive tour for the United States Department of Defense. She created an original show for the tour and took along eight girls from advanced classes of the conservatory as members of the cast.
The group, all from Newton, included Mini Shaw, Peggy Wells, Lynne Albert, Nancy McDonald, Baylie Rubin, and Linda Lech, assistant to Miss Bold at both the Newton and Winchester Conservatories.
They performed in Spain, Italy, Tangier, and Morocco. In each area Miss Bold also studied the various dance forms of each country as a source of inspiration for her teaching this Fall, furthering the extensive background she has in the field of dance.

Miss Bold previously has studied with Margaret Craske, of the Metropolitan Opera Ballet; Ted Shawn, known as the father of modern dance in this country; Martha Graham; Igor Moiseyev, director of the famed Russian Ballet Co.; Jean Cohn of the Joos Ballet Co.; Chanya Holm, world-famous choreographer for "My Fair Lady" and other Broadway shows.
The Conservatory program for Fall includes classes in Ballet, Modern Creative, Modern Jazz, and Ballroom dancing. In addition there will be special classes in Dance Fundamentals for pre-school children consisting of personalizing training to acquaint the young child with various elements of dancing and to develop co-ordination and freedom of expression through rhythmic dance movement.
A new class, Advanced Performing Arts, will be offered for the first time this season. This consists of special training in creating, developing and performing works of combined arts experiences.
Due to many requests the group will perform from time to time for worthy non-profit, civic and fraternal organizations.

DR. R. E. SYLVESTER

Not A Candidate, Says Taxpayers' Assoc. Official

Lorenz F. Muther, executive director of the Newton Taxpayers Association, is not a candidate for Alderman-At-Large as was inadvertently stated in last week's Graphic.

The Graphic story mentioned a Walter P. Muther, a candidate, as being the association's executive director. He is a brother of the Taxpayer's Association official.

Newton's justly-famed city-wide Hallowe'en celebration will surpass all previous efforts this year according to plans now in the formative stages. Dr. R. Emerson Sylvester, of 81 Woodland road, Auburndale, will serve as general chairman of the observance for the fourth consecutive year.

Last year more than 17,000 children from kindergarten to high school age attended more than 400 Hallowe'en parties in all sections of the city.

Chairman Sylvester has scheduled a preliminary meeting at the new Rice-Mason Elementary School next Thursday, September 24, at 7:45 p.m. Program organization will be discussed at this meeting.

Those invited to attend include Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., Recreation Commissioner C. Evan Johnson, Charles E. Brown, assistant to the superintendent, representing the school department, and Mrs. Dorothy H. Garon, who will serve as program chairman.

City Clerk Monte G. Basbas, vice chairman of the Hallowe'en committee, will show a documentary film of past celebrations.

Refreshments will be served by the hospitality committee of the Mason-Rice School Parent Teacher Association under the direction of its chairman, Mrs. Stanley Warshaw.

Mayor Tells Motorists To 'Slow Down'

Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., today expressed disappointment that compulsory automobile insurance rates for most Newton car owners will be only 50 cents lower in 1960 than in 1959.

The Mayor called for both greater care on the part of Newton motorists and a strict enforcement of safety regulations as a means of trimming down the amount of insurance. Garden City residents must pay to put their cars on the road.

He declared that he was very much impressed with the results of a no-fix ticket system in Worcester where automobile insurance rates next year are to be cut $9.50.

In commenting on the 50-cent reduction in insurance rates for Newton automobile owners, Mayor Whitmore observed that in some nearby cities and towns the compulsory charges will be lowered as much as $10 or $11.

"Slow down!" was one bit of advice the Mayor offered to Newton drivers.

Newton's compulsory insurance rate will be reduced from $52 to $51.50 for drivers over 25 with cars not used for business, from $80.50 to $80 for operators under 25 who do

Oak Hill Requires 5 Classes

Planning consultants have recommended that five more classrooms should be constructed "as soon as possible" at the Oak Hill School.

They also urged that eventually an addition will have to be constructed, containing eight or nine classrooms.

And, if the indicated population trend increases, there will be need for an additional school in the Oak Hill area. The consultants, under supervision of Charles E. Downe, submitted the report to the Newton School Committee at the outset of Monday night's meeting.

It was made public following an over-night study and a release from Mayor Howard Whitmore Jr.

The report described the present 10-room building as "inadequate today" and pointed out the eight-acre site has sufficient space for expansion.

Superintendent of Schools Eric N. Dennard, in commenting on the report, expressed the belief the School Committee would have to consider providing a gymnasium and

Special Legislative Session Sound Strategy By Furcolo

It is becoming increasingly apparent that one of the soundest decisions Governor Furcolo has made was in deciding to allow the members of the legislature to go home for a vacation and a cooling-off period and then to summon them back into special session a few weeks from now.

The Governor can't afford to end this year with a record as barren of major accomplishments as the 1959 legislative session has been to date.

At least he can't afford to do it without impressing upon the public that he is making a tremendous effort to do something.

There is not much doubt but that Furcolo's prestige and political stock are at a rather low ebb as a result of his inability to persuade the Legislature to follow his leadership to a greater extent.

Strangely enough, history is repeating itself as far as the Governor is concerned. That in itself should be evidence that his present political woes will not necessarily be fatal in the 1960 election.

Furcolo already has demonstrated that he is a resilient politician who can come bounding back even after the experts have tolled a requiem for the end they foresaw of his public life.

He was in just about the same political condition at the corresponding time in 1957 as he is today. He had accomplished just as little in the

Gomez Stars At Awards Dinner

Vernon "Lefty" Gomez stole the show last week at the Newton Recreation Department's annual award dinner held in the Normandie Room at Norumbega Park.

The former all-time great New York Yankee pitcher proved his right to the title of "King of feature speakers" as he regaled the audience with baseball stories and humorous incidents which characterized his colorful career.

Mayor Howard Whitmore

Jr., spoke on the value of the work of the Recreation Department for the people, especially the young people, of the city of Newton.

Recreation Commissioner C. Evan Johnson served as Master of Ceremonies and welcomed over 400 participants at the dinner as he paid tribute to the civic service in recreation to those men in whose names the memorial trophies were awarded.

President Annis Asaff of the Babe Ruth League, reviewed the past season and presented jackets to the title winning team graduates.

Trophies were presented to the winner and runner-up teams in the American, National, Babe Ruth club and industrial relations.

Outstanding players in the recreation summer playground midget and junior leagues were presented with autographed Red Sox baseballs, obtained through Jackie Jensen, who is a fellow-Newtonite, and lives in West Newton during the season.

Del Ryan, manager of the American Division champion Auburndale Merchants, received the John F. Donahue Memorial trophy from his sister, Mrs. Catherine Donahue.

Probe $100,000 Carder Fire

The State Fire Marshal's office has joined Newton fire officials in seeking the cause of a $100,000 fire which caused an estimated $100,000 damage early Saturday to the Freeman Carder Company at 45 Border St., in West Newton.

The firm is engaged in architectural woodworking in the two-story wooden building 75 feet long and 50 feet wide. Destroyed were carloads of finished wood, including mahogany and walnut.

Firefighter Jules W. Smith, 31, of 155 Charlesbank Rd., Newton, attached to Engine 2, was treated at the scene for smoke inhalation.

Lumber piled at the source of the fire prevented investigators from determining the cause. Employees must remove the lumber to allow further investigation.

Making the probe were Capt. Gerald S. McCarthy and Lts. George Harnois and John W. Hogan of the State Fire Marshal's office, and Chief Frederick A. Perkins, Jr., and Assistant Chiefs Francis X. Dwyer and John L. Martin of the Newton Fire Department.

The smoke was so dense in the early stages that firefighters were forced to don gas masks.

A wide area was covered by the pall of smoke, and flames were shooting high into the air when the first apparatus arrived at the scene shortly after 5:30 a.m.

All of Newton's 13 pieces of apparatus and over 100 firefighters battled the blaze for nearly six hours. Many hours of work were required to shift smoldering lumber.

Under the mutual aid system companies from Boston, Needham, Waltham, Watertown and Wellesley moved into Newton to cover up at unmanned stations.

Firefighters set up a water curtain and prevented flames from spreading to the adjoining contracting office of William Kellar at 49 Border St.

Two passersby, Frank Doherty of 59 Fordham Rd., and John Gallagher of 180 Cherry St., West Newton, discovered the fire.

not have driver training certificates. The rate for automobiles used in business and for operators under 25 who have driver training certificates will be cut from $66.50 to $55.50.

Mayor Whitmore greeted this announcement by State Insurance Commissioner Otis M. Whitney with restrained enthusiasm.

"The announced reduction in the compulsory liability automobile insurance rate for 1960 is certainly welcome news," he said.

"However, in the case of the new rates for Newton the reductions are disappointing, particularly when compared to the more substantial reduction earned by the owners and drivers in some of our neighboring communities," he asserted.

Mayor Whitmore pointed out that the 50-cent reduction in two major classifications and the $1 cut in the third category for passenger cars compare with some $10 and $11 reductions in neighboring cities and towns.

"The rates for any given city or town are established as a result of the accident experience of owners and drivers of cars garaged in that city or town and the cost of settling claims resulting from these accidents," he explained.

"Obviously," the Mayor stated, "there must be a considerable improvement in the accident experience of Newton drivers if the owners are to receive a substantial reduction in compulsory liability rates. Drivers must adhere to safe driving principles and practices and — above all — slow down."

Mayor Whitmore said that "full, fair and continuous enforcement of traffic laws through rules and regulations is essential."

"Enforcement can and must be improved in the City to reduce the number of accidents, lower the cost to owners and, most importantly, to save lives and prevent injuries."

"I am very much impressed with the result of the enforcement efforts in the city of Worcester and the accompanying no-fix practices followed in that city where the $9.50 reduction in rates has been accomplished," he declared.

Political Highlights

1957 legislative session as he did this year and had suffered even more rebuffs.

But Governor Furolo made a tremendous comeback in 1958, succeeded in getting most of his program through the Legislature and went on to win reelection by a very decisive margin.

One difference, however, is that the voters may be less understanding and tolerant of Furolo's difficulties with the Legislature in 1959 than they were in 1957.

The records indicate quite clearly, in fact, that the longer a Governor is in office, the less tolerant the voters become of his problems.

In the past 90 years the only Massachusetts Governor to serve more than four successive years in office has been Leverett Saltonstall, and he achieved reelection to his third term at the height of World War II when the voters were more intent upon the despatches from overseas than on the happenings on Beacon Hill.

Only three Governors, in fact, have been able to win reelection to a second term during the past quarter of a century. They were Furolo, the late Paul A. Dever and, of course, Saltonstall.

Furolo, a sound politician and a fairly shrewd judge of public opinion, obviously senses the need for attempting to improve his record of accomplishments this year rather than waiting until 1960.

In planning to call a special legislative session, Furolo is taking what appears to be a good political gamble. He might well gain substantially by the move, and it doesn't seem likely that he could lose much, if anything, even if he fails to accomplish anything.

Newton Court Becomes Full Time Dec. 9

The Newton District Court, covering an area which is the 19th most populous in the state, goes on a fulltime basis on December 9th.

Governor Foster Furolo last week signed into law the bill passed by the legislature which will require District Court Judge Donald E. Mayberry to devote his full time to the court. But it will increase his salary from $8,400 to $14,000 per year.

At present there are 38 full-time district courts in the state, of which 20 have smaller populations than Newton.

According to the 1955 census, the city had a population of 86,335.

In signing the bill, Gov. Furolo said in part:

"The criminal cases in the Newton District Court started in the same period number 4133, which exceeded those started in four of the districts having larger populations and was exceeded in turn by three districts with smaller population.

"The city is predominately a residential and commuting suburb of Boston. On the civil side the contract actions tend to predominate. Ejectment cases are few; supplementary process and small claims cases are about average.

"On the criminal side, traffic cases make up the heaviest part of the load. Juvenile cases and neglected children cases are comparatively small in number, as are reciprocal enforcement of support cases.

"While I have not received the official returns for the 12-month period ending June 30, 1959, preliminary information indicates that there will be a marked increase in the number of criminal cases, including the juveniles, and a slight decrease in the civil case load.

"I am of the opinion that the volume of business in the Newton District Court warrants making the court one of the fulltime district courts."

When the court goes on fulltime in December, civil trial days will be Tuesdays and Thursdays, instead of Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

Judge Mayberry has been assigned to hear civil cases in Woburn on Wednesdays starting in December.

Scout Leader Roundtables To Be Held Tonight

Cub Scout Leader and Boy Scout Leader Roundtables will be held for all Scouters tonight at the Auburndale Congregational Church Youth playroom at 8 p.m. All Cubmasters, Pack Committee, Den Mothers, Scoutmasters and Troop Committees are invited to attend.

A roundtable is a program ideas meeting. All sorts of ideas to be used in Troop, Pack and Den meetings the following month will be presented.

OUR READERS SAY

Khrushchev's Visit

The Newton Graphic To the Editor:

Our press is filled with commentaries and comments on WHAT TO DO WITH PREMIER KHRUSHCHEV when he arrives. He probably has many things in mind that he wants to see, among them our know-how in the agricultural and industrial fields. And especially how the average American lives.

The way I see it we have a job to do. We must impress not only Premier Khrushchev but public opinion on an international scale, in the first instance, the Russian people that we as a nation are peaceful minded and want more than anything else an end to the cold war and a beginning of peace among all nations. It is our chance to express our TRUE feelings in this matter.

Let our strong voices for PEACE ring out loud and clear! Let it be known that we do not covet anyone's territory or resources or wage war for any reason other than self-defense. Let it be known that we do not seek to dominate any people or force our way of life on anyone. That we feel each nation has a right to work out for itself the form of government that suits it best. THAT WE ARE ONLY INTERESTED IN HELPING TO WORK OUT A FORMULA FOR KEEPING THE PEACE BASED ON JUSTICE AND TRUTH!

We have in the past wars witnessed and experienced too much carnage and brutality to be passive. It is our lack of being decisive; it is our failing to express our true feeling in the matter of peace and war that is holding back and slowing down progress. But this is too grave a situation to say "Let John do it." At this crucial point in history, it is everyone's duty to encourage good relationships and strike out the word "Enemy" from our dialogue.

It is the 20th century when communication is highly developed in every field. Let us open the door in this medium to a greater understanding and trust. The results will be most satisfying and gratifying to all. I believe history is in the making! Let's give it a chance for the benefit of mankind. We must work a little harder to communicate our feeling and thinking more clearly and explain where we stand.

It is my contention that people are basically not different. We all need PEACE OF MIND in order to maintain a healthy organism. But there can be no peace of mind anywhere on this earth with military science shooting ahead and a diplomatic stalemate.

SADIE SHORE KRIPKE

Registrar's 'Thank You'

Dear Editor:

Once again the combined activities of the Massachusetts press and its staff made possible a public information coverage which kept motorists and pedestrians alert to travel conditions over the Labor Day holiday week end.

It also kept highway users aware of the program sponsored by the Massachusetts Highway Safety Committee to control and regulate traffic in the interests of safer travel.

Without this seemingly endless publicity the final results of our accident prevention campaign would be doubtful. Actually, officials and individuals representing many professions and staffs in the were very generous in their praise of what was done in the statewide campaign for safety over the Labor Day week end.

The press deserves a large part of these congratulations.

The Registrar, Chairman of the Massachusetts Highway Safety Committee and His Excellency Governor Foster Furolo, Honorary Chairman, wish to extend to you and your personnel our personal and official thanks and appreciation for the splendid cooperation given to our programs over the holiday period.

Sincerely yours, CLEMENT A. RILEY Registrar of Motor Vehicles Chairman, Massachusetts Highway Safety Committee.

by Your Congressman LAURENCE CURTIS - 10th District, Mass.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16—There was the usual rush of legislative activity during the last week of the session. Among important accomplishments were the following:

A third housing bill satisfactory to the President was passed after he had vetoed two previous bills as excessive. The third bill provided funds for a two-year extension of federal home mortgage and urban renewal programs, as urged by the President. He also wanted the federal aid for college classrooms to be handled under educational rather than housing programs, and this part of the bill was deleted. The bill contains reasonable provisions for continuation of public housing projects.

The great federal highway program, for which funds were depleted, was put back on the road by a one-cent increase in the federal gasoline tax, together with other provisions. This program is on a pay as-you-go basis, financed from a trust fund into which the proceeds of the federal gas tax are paid. The fund was getting low, due in part to the stepped-up spending last year occasioned by the depression jitters.

The President's second veto of a public works appropriation (pork barrel) was overridden. This is the bill which provides money for hundreds of river and harbor improvement, flood control, reclamation and power projects all over the country.

After his veto of the first bill was sustained, the House came right back with another bill only slightly changed. It still included all the unbudgeted "new starts," to which the President had objected, but contained slight reductions in the amounts for all the projects "across the board," so that the total figure was brought within the amount approved by the Bureau of the Budget.

I regard this action as irresponsible and misleading.

It did not meet the President's main objection—that these new starts, unlike the other items, carried future commitments. Indeed, it sought to gloss over that fact by the deceptive maneuver of the "across the board" reductions.

The President's objections to the 67 unbudgeted new starts were well founded. The bill provides for each project only the amount required for expenditure the next year. Most of these are for the continuation of projects already underway.

The new starts are horses of a very different color. Each one represents, in effect, a commitment by the government to undertake a new project, and then appropriate money for it year after year until it is completed.

Although the bill contained only $50 million for the new starts, their final cost was estimated at $800 million. In the last four years over 200 unbudgeted new starts have been included, involving total costs for nearly $3.8 billion.

It is only proper that the recommendations of the Bureau of the Budget, which speaks for the President, should have weight in determining whether these projects can be fitted into the overall requirements. In Massachusetts such projects would be financed by bond issues, requiring a two-thirds vote by each branch of the state legislature.

This veto was the first of 146 vetoes by the President which has been overridden. Contributing factors were the great political appeal of this type of legislation to Members in whose districts projects were located, and the feeling of frustration by the Democratic majority on having lost the first veto by a margin of one vote. My vote was to sustain the veto.

Plans Prepared For Annual Rummage Sale

Community Center Opens Season

presiding. Mrs. George Sprague and Mrs. Arthur Senecal, co-chairmen, reported on plans for the annual Fall Rummage Sale to be held at the Center on Tuesday, Oct. 6th, from 7 to 9:30 P.M.

Speaking for the committee, Mrs. Sprague reminded members that the Newton Community Center, being a Red Feather organization, is allowed to hold a Spring and a Fall Rummage Sale, proceeds from which are used solely toward paying off the mortgage.

For this Fall sale, the committee is making an all-out effort to offer better merchandise than that usually found at rummage sales, which will be carefully graded and priced to offer genuine bargains. Plans are also being made for better display of merchandise so that it will be easier for customers to see and examine the merchandise.

For the convenience of people contributing merchandise to be sold at the rummage sale, and to facilitate the committee in its work of grading, sorting and pricing, collection centers have been arranged in several areas where donors may leave merchandise before the sale.

Boeing Supervisory positions for Electrical and Electronic Engineers

Interviews in Boston Sept. 20 through Oct. 3

Boeing has consolidated its expanding missile and space-age programs into the newly formed Aero-Space Division. This move has created a number of high-level supervisory positions, offering outstanding advantages to qualified electrical and electronic engineers. Programs underway in the Aero-Space Division include Minuteman Solid Propellant ICBM, supersonic Bomarc area-defense missile, boost-glide vehicles and other challenging projects in such advanced areas as orbital systems, lunar systems and interplanetary systems.

Salaries range from $14,000 to $20,000. The men chosen will be given great latitude in the selection of their own staffs. They will also maintain close liaison with governmental and scientific agencies.

Positions open include the following:

Senior Radar System Supervisor Infrared Systems Engineering Supervisor
Missile Cable Design Supervisor Missile Operations Group Supervisor
Operational W/S Integration Supervisor

Requirements include the ability to direct the activities of high-level technical people, and a satisfactory record of supervisory engineering experience in the electronic fields. In addition, applicants must possess a strong desire to stay abreast of the state-of-the-art and be willing to accept even more responsible positions in the future.

In addition to the supervisory positions described above, Boeing offers rewarding senior engineering opportunities to electrical-electronic engineers, mathematicians and physicists with experience in the electronic fields.

Qualified applicants are invited to make arrangements for a personal interview in Boston or their home towns, by calling Mr. George Davidson at Capital 7-6820, beginning Sunday.

"Skyscraper" Beans

A Newton woman, avid horticulturist and garden club member, almost set the scene this summer for a repetition of the fabled story of "Jack In The Bean Stalk."

Mrs. Arthur Douglas, of 47 Maplewood avenue, Newton Centre, is the proud grower of beans that shot up to a height of better than 20 feet. In fact, Mrs. Douglas was timid about climbing a ladder high enough to get within flitting distance of the top of the bean stalk.

The well tended garden on Maplewood avenue is a source of much pride to Mrs. Douglas and a center of interest and admiration for her neighbors. She is a "green thumb" expert and specializes in hybrid iris, which she sells. She also is a member of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society, American Iris Society and Newton Highlands Garden Club.

This year she added materially to her fame as a grower when the skyscraper bean soared into the blue from the earth of her garden.

Mrs. Canner will introduce the 13 group presidents who will serve with her, including the following in the Newton area:

Mrs. Harry Intriligator, Newton; Mrs. Joseph Soltz, Oak Hill; Mrs. Benjamin Golanick, West Newton, Mrs. Earl Auerback, Henrietta Soltz and Miss Judith Smith, Deborah Kallen Junior Group.

The same morning project chairmen will attend workshops to blueprint plans for the season. Mrs. Leon Margolis of Edgill road, Chestnut Hill, is chairman of the morning sessions.

Group Formed Here

Great Books To Be Discussed September 29th

A Great Books discussion group has been formed at the Newtonville branch of the Newton Public Library and will start on Tuesday evening, September 29, at 8 o'clock, according to an announcement from A. William Kunkel, Newton librarian.

The group will meet every two weeks and will discuss a new book at each meeting. The reading list will include books written by such authors as Plato, Shakespeare, Thoreau, and Tolstoy; books as old as the Bible, new as Freud.

Leaders of the group will be Miss Charlotte Goodfellow, chairman of the Latin Department of Wellesley College.

"This opportunity for a free liberal education is open to all adults in this community," stated Librarian Kunkel in discussing the Great Books group. "There is no tuition and no educational requirements. The sessions are not book reviews, but extremely lively discussions of contemporary issues grounded in the great ideas of the past," the librarian stated.

All persons interested in joining the Great Books group may register by calling Mrs. Sarah Stimpson, Newtonville librarian, at BI 4-0520, or by attending the first meeting on September 29.

CHAIRMAN — Charles S. Cannon Steps Up Campaign For Mayoralty Post

Democratic Alderman Leo M. Cannon this week stepped up his campaign for election as Newton's next Mayor.

In a detailed statement, Cannon reviewed his public record, outlined his ideas for running the municipal government and pledged his greatest efforts and energy and all his ability to administering the duties of Mayor, if elected.

Both Cannon and his campaign manager, Maurice Silverman of 85 Mary Ellen road, Waban, publicly thanked the hundreds of Newton residents who signed his nomination papers.

Alderman Cannon pointed out that when he announced his candidacy for Mayor he said at the time that due to the illness of his daughter he would issue a statement at a later date.

"At the request of many friends, businessmen and civic-minded citizens," he continued, "I am conforming to their desires to stand for election as Mayor."

"As a member of the Newton Board of Aldermen for the past 10 years, having served on the Finance Committee for eight years, on the Claims and Rules Committee for eight years, the last two years as chairman, on Public Buildings Committee, on Franchises and License Committee, and on various appointed committees, I know the problems that the administration of the city must meet," Cannon asserted.

"My experience for the past decade in the Legislative branch of our City Government, has kept me alert and informed as to the duties, obligations and requirements of the Executive Department. As chief executive, I feel deeply confident that I, Leo M. Cannon, will clearly and decisively administer the Office of Mayor of the City of Newton. I know and willingly accept the challenge to fulfill the duties as Mayor in a better and more efficient manner."

"We all realize that the cost of the MTA deficit, together with the cost of financing and bonding our new schools and additions to our present ones, offers to the Mayor for 1960-1961 a distinct opportunity to maintain an efficient City Government, lest the taxes should rise to a burdensome height."

"A closer harmony between the different City Departments, an effective curtailment of unnecessary expenses, and an effective supervision of all departments, will build a happier, yet more satisfactory, City Administration, without depriving citizens of their present services to which they are justly entitled."

"The closer cooperation between the different departments, heads of departments, and the City employees, under the direction of the Mayor, is bound to effect substantial savings in the municipal operations. Thus, these methods, effectively introduced and supervised, will offset the usual additional costs that we are facing next year."

"I sincerely believe that the citizens of Newton have the most capable department heads, and better employees than those of the Commonwealth or any city or town. Our City personnel, working together with me as a team, will demonstrate to the Newton citizens how our City can be efficiently operated and administered. I know the employees and realize that they will cooperate with me. Our mutual cooperation will produce greater and better results, to the financial advantage of all of us," Alderman Cannon stated.

By LEE LOUMOS

Television viewers will have a ringside seat at one of the most violent scenes ever televised when Eddie Albert, guest star, and program star Robert Fuller tangle in "Glory Road," one-hour episode of the "Laramie" series, on Sept. 22. The wild fracas finds the two actors wrecking a bar, destroying hundreds of glasses, smashing a piano, breaking furniture and finally crashing through a window. The participants suffered only a few black and blue marks (incidents will happen, even in television), although the fight took better than seven hours of workdays in a gym before it finally went before the cameras. After cutting and editing, viewers will find the action summed up in roughly one minute of actual battle on their screens.

In "Glory Road" Honey Carmichael introduces his first of several scenes created for the "Laramie" series. The number is called "Merry Me In Laramie." As one of the regular stars of the series it was inevitable that Carmichael's role of Jones, a sage ranch-hand, should eventually lead him to a piano. A careful check of history showed that there were few pianos in the Wyoming territory of the 1870's, but, fortunately for Honey and the viewers, this problem was solved. THE NEW NEW ENGLAND

New Look in Submarines

Yankee craftsmanship and ingenuity have made New England the nuclear submarine center of the world. USS Skipjack, whose unusual silhouette is shown above, is the world's fastest and deepest diving submersible. First of a new generation of fighting ships, Skipjack is so hydrodynamically superior to all other subs she makes man's dream of outperforming the fish a near-reality.

New England shipyards currently employ 43,000 men and are operating at a postwar peak to provide vessels for civilian and military use. Our principal yards are building everything from giant 100,000-ton tankers to nuclear cruisers and submarines to small minesweepers. A boon in pleasure boating is keeping the region's smaller yards busy producing a veritable armada ranging from sleek expensive sloops to tiny dinghies.

New Englanders have been associated with the sea — in one way or another — since the Pilgrims dropped anchor in Plymouth Bay in 1620. For hundreds of years they have built ships for national defense, commerce on the seven seas, and recreation. Now New England is leading the way in a new shipbuilding dimension — nuclear propulsion.

This message was prepared by The New England Council for Economic Development and is published by this newspaper as a public service in cooperation with the New England Daily Newspaper Association and the New England Weekly Press Association.

Last year almost one and a half million people were injured in traffic accidents. That represents untold grief, mental anguish and physical suffering for those involved, as well as heartbreak and pain for their families and loved ones. There are many agencies on the national, state and local levels that are working unceasingly to educate both drivers and pedestrians in effective measures to promote highway safety and to combat the national disgrace of maiming and slaughtering our friends and neighbors.

The Registry men, your local police and our school teachers, as well as various local clubs and organizations, are attempting to do a conscientious job in alerting our population to traffic dangers. And yet, accidents persist. Why? Because the average person is all in favor of traffic safety, yet he is unwilling to discipline his own behavior or accept restrictions imposed on him. He is convinced that he is a safe and prudent driver and he feels that it's the other fellow's irresponsibility and recklessness that cause accidents.

IT'S TIME FOR EVERY DRIVER TO TAKE STOCK OF HIMSELF and vow to exercise good judgment when driving... to control his temper and his car... even when some driver might do something to him that is obviously the other fellow's fault. You're probably heading for an accident yourself if you lose your temper and set out to get even... like the unfortunate chap pictured below.

BE A SMART DRIVER AND STAY ALIVE--GIVE OTHERS THE SAME OPPORTUNITY!

"I was fighting mad..."

Too often the innocent may suffer when temper's at the wheel! When another driver gets your dander up—or you smoulder over some grievance back home—cool off! Losing your head can cost you control of your car and make an innocent party a victim of your spite. Last year traffic accidents brought death to 37,000 people, painful injuries to hundreds of thousands more. Too many were innocent victims of good drivers who momentarily let emotion blindfold judgment. When all your mind's on driving, you'll be a safer driver.

THE MOTORIST'S PRAYER

"O God, give me a firm hand and a sharp eye so that I will not injure any person while driving. Thou hast given life and I pray that none of my actions will take away or spoil the gift which comes from Thee."

"Grant that I may refrain from the kind of indulgence that would impair my skill and thus endanger the life and safety of my fellow man."

"Guide my automobile for the protection of others. And may I not miss, because of the love of speed, the beauty of the world which Thou hast created. May I always drive courteously, safely and with a full sense of the responsibility which lies in my hands. AMEN"

Riggs Flower Shop Ready To Provide Fall Floral Designs

With Labor Day in the background now, and homemakers back on home premises after summer vacations, flowers for every occasion seem more appropriate than ever for decorative purposes, and Riggs Flower Shop at 2096 Commonwealth Avenue in Auburndale, is an ideal spot to visit.

Flowers carry a very special message of their own, wherever used, and Riggs' Shop has all types of flowers, plants, and other kinds of lovely decoration ready for every occasion.

Especially moving into the fall season, when outdoor gardens fade, is the time to use cut flowers in the home as a wonderful means of brightening up the scene.

For those who want to send flowers as a way of showing affection and esteem, Riggs Shop is a perfect place.

This fine old firm is a member of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association so more distance from a loved one should not prove any handicap to the sender.

In a matter of hours flowers can be delivered with a card in any part of the world, and the sender may be sure that these will be wonderful examples of the floral art, telling the wonderful story that flowers always tell.

The florists themselves have a slogan which says in effect that nothing tells the same story as flowers, nor brings such a warm response, and they are right.

Regardless of the occasion, flowers always are in perfect taste, and carry a warmer message than any other kind. Because the Riggs Flower Shop has long experience and a most interested staff, you may be sure that whatever flowers they send will be exactly right for the occasion.

Violets, roses, plants or corsages as well as set pieces, are created perfectly and delivered in top condition. The firm has been established since 1910, and with perfect equipment and supplies is able to give the buyer just what is needed. Call Riggs Flower Shop today. You'll be delighted.

Boost Chief Purcell For Vice Pres. Post

Newton Police Chief Philip Purcell, who has held the post since 1948, is heavily supported by Massachusetts and New England groups to be honored by the International Association of Police Chiefs.

Chief Purcell has been nominated as sixth vice president at the election to be held in New York City during the conference from September 27 to October 1.

The nomination was made by the Massachusetts Police Chiefs Association, and endorsed by the New England Association of Chiefs of Police.

It is signed by Chief Thomas J. Maguire, chairman and Chief Hector Pelletier, secretary-treasurer of the State Association, and Chief Thomas H. Welch, secretary of the New England Association.

The endorsement follows: "The Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association presents Chief Philip Purcell, Newton, Mass., for Sixth Vice President of the International Association of Chiefs of Police. The Executive Board of the New England Association of Chiefs of Police joins in this endorsement."

"Chief Purcell is 56 years of age, married, and the father of three children. He joined the Newton Police Department in 1929 and has been promoted through examination to his present post which he assumed in 1948. He directs 204 police employees serving a community of 90,000 persons."

"He served as a member of the executive committee of the Mass. Chiefs of Police Association, and as chairman of its traffic and safety committee. He now serves as chairman of the Public Safety Committee and was active in creating the Criminal Information Bureau in Mass. He was also vice-chairman of the Regional Police Coordinating Committee of Mass Civil Defense."

He was graduated from the F.B.I. National Academy in 1945 and was the first President of the F.B.I. National Academy Associates of New England.

"In his community he has been president of the Municipal Credit Union; incorporator of the West Newton Savings Bank; chairman of the Cancer Crusade; co-chairman of the Jimmy Fund, Heart Fund, and Mental Health Association, as well as vice-president of the Newton Community Council."

He further served as District Co-Chairman for the Community Fund Drive and is a past President of the Kiwanis Club.

"He has been a member of the I.A.C.P. for 11 years. He has served the Association as a member of the Education and Training Committee, and this year is Chairman of this Committee."

"Here is a professional police officer who has spent his entire adult life in law enforcement and has consistently devoted himself to the work of all Police Associations. He is a man of integrity, character, and ability, and we ask your consideration of him for Sixth Vice-President of the I.A.C.P. We know that he will do his utmost to continue the growth, development, and service of the Association."

Local Bank Has Unique IQ Tester
People who drop in at the Newton Savings Bank during the next two weeks will have an excellent opportunity to test their financial IQ, according to Benjamin F. Louis, treasurer of the institution.

Mr. Louis has announced that an interesting educational exhibit furnished by the Savings Banks Association of Massachusetts will be on display in the bank's Newton Highlands Office at 43 Lincoln Street, Newton Highlands, starting Monday, September 21, and in the Newton Center Office at 103 Union Street, Newton Centre beginning Monday, September 28.

The operation of the exhibit which allows for public participation is simple. Anyone wishing to "have a go" at it must face a battery of nine thought-provoking questions on money matters and banking. Under each question are three different answers, only one of which is correct.

Once the "contestant" has made up his mind as to the right answer to a particular question, he can quickly deflate or inflate his ego by pushing an electrical button directly beneath the answer he has selected. If he is correct a green signal flashes on the back panel; if incorrect, a red signal.

The bank believes that this exhibit will give residents of Newton a chance to learn some interesting facts about savings banking and thrift while having a little fun in the process.

TREASURER — Elliott Bachner, of Fenno road, Newton, is the newly elected treasurer of Temple Sinai, in Brookline. Mr. Bachner assumes his new office as Temple Sinai begins its twentieth year. He has served several terms as president of the Temple.

Mme. Beaudreau To Be Teacher For Third Year

Madam Elizavetha Beaudreau will be the voice teacher at the All Newton Music School in Newtonville for her third year at the school.

Elizavetha Beaudreau is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and continued her studies at Boston University, and Boston Conservatory of Music. Her past experience as a teacher has exceeded a period of ten years. She has performed in various musical shows.

Last summer she was a member of the cast of the Boston Music Theatre of John Hancock Hall and she played the role of the Countess in the "Song of Norway" for the Barker Players at the Holden Summer Theatre and the "Red Barn Theatre" of Westboro.

Besides extensive radio work and recordings she is well known as an oratorio singer and soloist for many women's clubs.

This course includes concentrated practice in the fundamentals of singing, proper breathing, voice placement and diction. It includes individual instruction and guidance in interpretation, phrasing and singing in foreign languages.

Highland MTA Adds 3000 Daily

Between 2,000 and 3,000 more riders per day are using the MTA's new Highland Branch since the Fall season began, according to official estimates.

About 18,000 persons were using the new line during the Summer months.

The increased patronage is due, officials said, because of the re-opening of high schools and colleges and the return of summer vacationists.

An MTA spokesman said official counts were being made this week to determine the exact number of year-round riders on the MTA facility.

Pending completion of the survey, and a study of all factors involved, the spokesman would not hazard a comment on a question concerning whether the line was showing a profit or a loss.

Meanwhile, the Fall schedule went into effect last week on the Highland branch and it calls for use of three-car trains every six minutes in each direction during the peak hours in the morning and in the late afternoon.

The MTA is providing trains every eight minutes during the early afternoon when schools dismiss their pupils.

Impressive Ceremonies Mark Recognition Of Greek Church

The new Greek Orthodox parish serving the Newton and Wellesley area has been granted recognition by the Greek Archdiocese. The ceremony of recognition was held last week at the church with Bishop Athenagoras, of New England, officiating at the Divine Liturgy.

The parish will serve more than 200 local families and has established an unique type of community government. It combines the best aspects of a New England town meeting with early Greek democracy.

Open meetings are held weekly at which any member of the parish is entitled to attend. Those attending regularly are members of the steering committee which chooses its own leaders.

Presently the steering committee comprises, Lee Loumos, Newton, chairman; Dr. Demetre Decaneas, Weston, secretary; and John Condakos, Weston, treasurer.

The choir, under the direction of Professor James Savas, of Framingham State Teachers College, will begin functioning in two weeks. Sunday school classes are scheduled to begin shortly.

No permanent priest has been assigned to the church as yet. Visiting priests selected through the diocese of office will continue to serve the parish for the present.

The new Greek Orthodox Church is located at the former home of the Lower Falls Methodist Church on Washington street.

400 Parties To Be Held October 31st

17,000 Youngsters Will Make Merry At Newton's Gala Hallowe'en Event

Seventeen thousand Newton youngsters, and young-at-heart adults, will make merry at 400 parties held city-wide as Newton again observes a now nationally-famed Hallowe'en on Saturday, October 31st. This will be the 19th annual celebration held here.

Further plans will be discussed at the meeting of the Hallowe'en Executive Committee to be held at the Mason-Rice School on Pleasant street, Newton Centre, tonight, starting at 7:45 o'clock.

The complete list of coordinators has been released and is published today in The Graphic.

Recreation Commissioner C. Evan Johnson has already predicted that this year's edition of this nationally known Hallowe'en observance will be the most successful in its history.

Johnson has pointed out that this is the largest single civic enterprise in the city, noting that one out of every five people in Newton participates in some phase of the Hallowe'en celebration.

Sponsored by the Recreation Department these Hallowe'en parties, over 400 in number, receive the support of hundreds of individuals and organizations including the School Department, Parent Teacher Associations and the Newton Chamber of Commerce.

During the meeting, to be conducted by General Chairman Dr. R. Emerson Sylvester, organization and program plans for the hundreds of parties expected to draw 17,000 children, will be mapped.

Newton Given $105,000 In Federal School Aid

Part of Funds To Be Used For Stepped-Up Programs

Newton's public school system will receive $105,000 in federal funds this year, School Committee Chairman Haskell C. Freedman reported today.

The biggest portion of the money—$81,358—is being paid to the city to help meet the cost of educating children whose parents are employed in various branches of the national government.

Part of the other funds to come from the federal government must be used to step up educational programs in order to meet the needs and demands of the space age.

A $12,000 grant, which must be matched by the city, is being provided to expand the programs in the science, mathematics and foreign language fields.

The school department also is getting $4000 for a guidance program and $8000 for vocational education.

Exactly how the $81,358 will be utilized is entirely within the discretion of the School Committee. In most communities it is turned back to the city or town treasury to be applied against school costs. But it can be used for new or expanded programs if the School Board so decides.

Members of the School Committee are expected to vote in the near future on what to do with the $81,358 windfall.

Newton barely qualified for that assistance since the law provides that only cities and towns, where at least 3 per cent of the public school pupils are the sons and daughters of federal employees, are eligible for this form of assistance.

A painstaking survey conducted by Raymond Cook, administrative assistant to School Superintendent Eric N. Dennard, disclosed that 3.1 per cent of Newton's public school children come within that category.

Once having qualified, however, Newton is eligible for continuing annual grants from the federal government even though the number in the future should drop below 3 per cent, Chairman Freedman explained to The Graphic.

Freedman said that $63,000 already has been paid to the city and that the balance will be received before the end of the year.

An application will be made for a similar grant next year, the School Board head disclosed.

Three separate grants were made to the Newton school department under various provisions of the National Defense Education Act.

One for $12,000, which the city must match, will be used for stepped-up programs in science, mathematics and foreign language which should be of great benefit to the city's children.

School authorities plan to launch a pioneer program in elementary mathematics for

Board Votes Zone Shift On Two Lots

On recommendation of Mayor Howard Whitmore Jr., the Board of Aldermen placed two abandoned building sites in specific zones in an effort to spur their sale.

The site of the old Mason School in Newton Centre was placed in Business Zone "A" and the abandoned water works pumping station on Needham street, Newton Upper Falls, was placed in Manufacturing Zone.

Mayor Whitmore appeared at a public hearing Monday and told the Board that any prospective purchaser must know in what zone the property will be. He said both recommendations were in keeping with the city's plan.

Petite Schoolgirl New State Baton Champion

JOAN HOPENGARTEN

Joan Hopengarten, petite 12-year-old Newton student, twirled two flashing batons to new fame and laurels when she won first place and was crowned the official 1959 Massachusetts Junior State Champion in a field of stellar contenders in the contest held at the Brockton Fair on Sept. 13.

The talented little lady is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. W. Hopengarten, of 68 Avalon road, Waban. She is a student at Weeks Junior High School; she will compete for national honors at Minnesota early next year.

Joan, who thrilled Newton crowds in this year's Memorial Day parade, was acclaimed for her ability with one and two-baton exhibitions.

Whitmore Testimonial Plans Get Underway

The Newton Chamber of Commerce will honor Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., at a testimonial dinner on Nov. 23 in recognition of his many years of service to the city.

The Chamber's Board of Directors voted unanimously at its regular monthly meeting to honor the retiring Chief Executive.

A steering committee was appointed to formulate plans for the dinner, and compile a list of organizations and individuals to assist the Chamber in sponsoring the city-wide endeavor.

An announcement said the Board of Directors voted unanimously to honor one of Newton's most able administrators, who has served the citizens of Newton for the past six years.

"Dwight Colburn, past president of the Chamber and president of the G. Clement Colburn Insurance Agency, was appointed Chairman of this Committee. Mr. Colburn has already received acceptance to serve as members of this testimonial committee from Alderman John P. Nixon, City Treasurer Archie R. Whitman, former alderman Franklin K. (Jim) Hoyt, Herbert N. McGill, Richard J. White, president of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, and Justin T. Horan, Chamber Executive director.

Newton To Open Grid Wars Here

Newton High School grid-ders, out to avenge last year's one-point loss, tackle Everett High here in the 1959 season opener.

The Orange players, who have shown a steady improvement in all phases of play in recent workouts, are led by newly-elected co-captains Dick Paaso and Bill Southmayd, both of Newton Centre.

Paaso, a fullback, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Orthman of 304 Lagrange street, and Southmayd, a guard, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Southmayd of 19 Hampden terrace.

"The boys made a good choice," commented Coach Hob Malone. "Both Dick and Bill are the scrappy, aggressive type of players who are certain to make good leaders."

Everett High edged Newton 19-18 last year. However, this year Coach Malone has a rugged team with two good, game-type scrimmages under its belt. Last Wednesday the Orange handed Weymouth High a physical beating in a scrimmage at Newton High field. And then last Saturday morning Newton won six touchdowns to one over a Gloucester team which was defensive-ly strong in the first half.

POLITICAL HIGHLIGHTS

By JAMES G. COLBERT
Former Boston Post Political Editor

Attorney General McCormack Gaining Steadily in Stature

Of all the Democrats holding state-wide office on Beacon Hill, the only one who has gained perceptibly in prestige and stature this year has been Attorney General Edward J. McCormack, Jr.

That is the judgment of sound and experienced political observers after appraising the developments during the 1959 legislative session which has ended at least temporarily.

In a period when the Democrats were in complete control of all branches of the state government and total responsibility has rested upon them, the political stock of most Democratic office-holders has dropped sharply. A notable exception has been McCormack.

Governor Furcolo obviously is not in nearly as strong a position today as he was at the start of the year.

He may still make a comeback this year or in 1960, just as he did in 1958. But the fact remains that this year to date has not been a politically profitable one for Furcolo and that he has lost ground in the past nine months.

Lieutenant Governor Robert F. Murphy has violated one of the fundamental rules of politics. As Lieutenant Governor he has publicly criticized and taken issue with the Governor of his own party. While he may have injured Furcolo to some

Doubles Bid; Wins Property

The City gained $1100 in the sale of land because the Newton Board of Aldermen refused an original $1,000 bid by John Melnick.

The Board Monday night accepted his sealed bid of $2,100 for lots 6, 7 and 8, Section 51, Block 29, and denied the sealed bid of $2,000 for the same lot from Nicola Yehba.

Long Prison Terms Follow Pistol Battle

Prison doors have closed on a Cambridge youth and a Newton pal who were involved in robberies and in a shoot-out with Newton police last May in a Newton Corner building.

Donald P. Dawson, 20, was sentenced to Walpole State Prison for eight to 15 years by Judge Horace Cahill in Middlesex Superior Court last week.

J. Kenneth MacLellan, 18, of 351 Washington street, Newton, was sentenced to five years and a day in Concord Reformatory for three Newton breaks.

Dawson was arrested May 14 after he defied a squad of Newton Police and fired a shot down a stairway at Newton officers. MacLellan was arrested earlier at his home on burglary counts.

United Fund Plans Progress

Special Gifts Section Co-Chairmen Appointed

Further progressive steps in the preparation of the forthcoming United Fund campaign in Newton were announced this week with the creation of the Special Gifts Division and the appointment of co-chairmen by Simon Scheff, general chairman of the Newton fund-raising drive. Plans also were discussed for the pledge dinner in November.

Harry L. Walen, president of the Newton Community Chest and Council, and Dr. Neil W. Swinton, first vice-president, were named co-chairmen of the Special Gifts Division.

ng with the surrounding area. Executive Director Justin T. Horah reported that the executive board of the Newton Chamber of Commerce unanimously voted to endorse the mayor's recommendations. Executive Director Lorenz F. Muther, Jr., of the Newton Taxpayers' Association, suggested the city permit any proposed building on the Mason School site to go higher than six stories.

The Mayor replied the city of Newton, as well as Boston, has been exempted from provision of the law passed by the Legislature, limiting buildings to 125 feet in height.

He said city officials are studying the matter to determine whether buildings of greater height should be allowed.

Meanwhile, the Board of Aldermen also approved the recommendation by Mayor Whitmore that a "Limited Manufacturing District" be set up to provide for garden-type industrial development.

The Board changed section 15 of the proposal to read "Molding, shaping or assembly" instead of "Manufacturing" to prevent the manufacturing of plastic materials in the new zone.

Working with the co-chairmen, in coordinating this effort, will be Constance S. Garbutt, executive director of the chest and council.

The group also agreed to have the member Red Feather agencies prepare exhibits for the upcoming United Fund pledge dinner to be held at the Newton High School gymnasium on Thursday, November 5.

This is when the morning rush hour begins. From 7:04 until 9:23 a.m. there is a train leaving for Park St., every six minutes.

After 9:30 a train departs every eight minutes until 2:07; then every 10 minutes until 3:36 p.m.

This is the start of the late afternoon rush period, and the schedule reverts to six minute departures, until 6 o'clock. After 6 p.m., a train leaves every eight minutes until 7:18. After that hour, trains leave Riverside every 12 minutes until 9:35 p.m., when the service drops to one train every 15 minutes.

The last train from Riverside to Park St., leaves at 12:05 a.m. However, there is a train which leaves at 12:20 from Riverside but goes only as far as Reservoir.

MTA officials said that service in the opposite direction, that is from Park St., to Riverside, operates on approximately the same kind of schedule.

High Cost Of Beer Bottle Tossing

"Twas an expensive empty beer bottle which Alfred J. Leone, 24, of Newton, allegedly tossed from a car window at Salem, N. H.

It cost him 36 cents, including contents, he told Judge Kenneth F. Pomprey, when he faced a charge of violating that state's "Litterbug Law."

Judge Pomprey fined him $25 and commented:

"I intend that you shall remember that bottle of beer for some time to come."

Political Highlights

degree, he probably has hurt himself more by engaging in a running feud within the Democratic party.

State Treasurer John F. Kennedy, Secretary of State Joseph D. Ward, and State Auditor Thomas J. Buckley, all have moved along in comparative obscurity, neither gaining much ground nor losing any.

Ward, who was elected to his position by the State Legislature, not by the voters, has been making sounds like a candidate for Governor. It's somewhat difficult to believe he's serious since he has yet to wage his first successful statewide campaign. Neither has he done anything of note to distinguish himself since becoming Secretary of State.

Kennedy remains about as obscure as it's possible to be and still hold a comparatively high state office. Buckley came to life periodically to direct a blast at his favorite target, the MTA trustees, and then subsides until he can say the same over again without sounding too repetitious.

Senate President John E. Powers, the first full-time Democratic head of the upper legislative chamber, has been a commanding, extremely influential figure on Beacon Hill and has continued to gain in stature. But he, of course, does not hold state-wide office.

McCormack is the one Democratic State Constitutional officer who has stood up throughout the year, has earned increased respect from the people of Massachusetts, has advanced himself as a public figure and has achieved an impressive record.

He has done this while taking stands on a number of controversial issues and handling a series of troublesome problems.

His biggest headache of the year came in striving to straighten out the confusing milk situation after the State Milk Control Commission adopted a price-fixing order and sharply increased the cost of that very necessary commodity.

McCormack first forced the revocation of the price-fixing order and succeeded in having the price of milk lowered. Later he intervened forcefully when it became apparent that some of the large milk companies were selling their product at a loss in order to put the squeeze on small concerns.

Window on Washington

by Your Congressman LAURENCE CURTIS • 10th District, Mass.

WASHINGTON, September 23—The final gavel marking the sine die adjournment of the first session of the 86th Congress fell in the House Chamber as dawn broke on Tuesday, September 15.

Final action was on the Mutual Security (foreign aid) appropriation bill which also included various other supplemental appropriations. A provision was tacked on to this bill in the Senate extending the life of the Civil Rights Commission for two years. This required a two-thirds vote. It provoked "extended debate" by Southern Senators; but when the votes were counted, the Southern bloc could muster only 18 votes. The vote was 71-18.

After a conference between the branches, the bill was finally enacted. The Senate restored only some of the House cuts from the Mutual Security appropriation. The Conference Committee practically split the differences between the Senate and House figures, so that the bill in its final form still carried serious cuts. Many House Members from distant points had left by this time, but 302 Members remained for the final roll call. It was important to have a quorum present, and I stayed for the final gavel.

The extension of the life of the Civil Rights Commission was the only action by Congress at this session for the better protection of constitutional rights, particularly of citizens in the South. Earlier in the session, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson had stated that a Civil Rights bill, with several other important provisions, would be taken up. The Southern Members of the Senate Judiciary Committee were, however, successful in blocking action, and there was also obstruction on the House side.

But this was a costly victory for the Southern members. The handwriting on the wall is clear for all

"I'll tell you how I feel... I only bought a one-way ticket from home this morning."

Deaths

Anna Gallagher

Mrs. Anna L. (Morrissey) Gallagher died last week at her home, 35 Rossmore street, Newton, and funeral services were held Monday morning with a solemn requiem Mass at the Church of Our Lady.

Mrs. Gallagher, a lifelong resident of Newton, was the wife of James P. Gallagher, Newton attorney and retired clerk of Newton District Court.

Besides her husband she leaves a son, Charles A. Gallagher of Upper Darby, Pa., two daughters, Mrs. John B. Daly of Beverly and Mrs. Grace F. Griffin of Watertown; six grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Edward D. Brone of Auburndale.

Mrs. Gallagher was a former president of the Catholic Women's Guild. She was a life member of Our Lady's parish, a member of the Sodality, and a member of the Newton Emblem Club, the Archdiocesan Television Guild, the Guild of the Infant Saviour, and the Daughters of Isabella.

Mrs. Gallagher attended many Kiwanis conventions throughout the country. Her husband is a former president of Newton Kiwanis and a past international vice-president of Kiwanis.

Timothy Regan

Rev. Robert F. Regan, S.J., of Weston College, was the celebrant at a solemn requiem Mass at St. Ignatius Church, Chestnut Hill, Saturday morning for his uncle, Timothy Regan, 85, formerly of Newton.

Regan, an insurance adjuster in Newton for many years, died Wednesday at Holy Ghost Hospital following a lengthy illness.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Eleanor (Sullivan) Regan and several nephews and nieces. He was a member of the Holy Name Society of Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre, and the Sacred Heart Men's Club. Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury.

Alphonse Levesque

A solemn requiem Mass was offered Monday at Sacred Heart Church, Newton, for Mrs. Alphonse (St. Pierre) Levesque of 46 Ripley St., Newton Centre, who died Thursday.

Mrs. Levesque, a native of Canada who was believed to have been the parish's oldest parishioner, would have been 100 years old in October. She lived in Newton for 80 years. Levesque, who died in 1929, She leaves two daughters, to see that time is running out on them for further successful obstruction, as shown by these facts:

The Senate rule for ending filibusters was tightened up at the start of this year's session. Debate can now be closed by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting, instead of, as formerly, by a two-thirds vote of the total membership.

This same two-thirds vote was required to suspend the Senate rules at the end of the session just ended, as described above; and the vote at that time was 71-18.

Four new Senators have been added to the Senate, two each from Alaska and Hawaii. This dilutes the power of the Southern bloc. These four new Senators all voted to suspend the rules on the occasion just referred to.

When the above action was taken, the Senate leadership on both sides agreed that further Civil Rights legislation would be taken up by the middle of February next year. This agreement was made to forestall last-minute efforts by proponents of Civil Rights legislation to have further provisions acted on this year.

The President's success in keeping legislation in line with his policies, while working with a Congress under firm Democratic control was an outstanding feature of the session—made possible only because popular opinion swung to his views on many major issues. His biggest setbacks were on the government bond interest bill, the pork barrel bill and the Strauss appointment. Over-shadowing accomplishments of the session were Hawaiian statehood and the new labor law.

TELE-VIEWING THE NEWS

By LEE LOUMOS

Some movie and TV actors seem to fall easily into an interesting life of wealth and top acting roles. But for William Bendix, who probably is best known for his performance in the "Life of Riley" TV series, it was an uphill climb almost all the way. Raised in poverty in New York City, Bill's first job was as a bat boy for the New York Giants and his first ambition was to be a professional ballplayer.

After a year of "good field" — no hit! — in semi-pro ball, he settled for a job as a grocery clerk on Third Avenue and became store manager shortly after marrying his childhood sweetheart.

When the store folded as a result of the depression, Bendix, impoverished, worked as a singing waiter in Greenwich Village, and then landed a job with the WPA Federal Theatre Project, where he lasted three years. Then he acted in six plays on Broadway and in summer stock — all flops. Finally in 1933, flat broke and after 33 years of constant reverses, he scored a success in the role of Krupp, the policeman, in William Barrows' "The Time of Your Life."

The next 20 years have been crowded with success. Bendix says that his hobbies are: "My granddaughter, the Los Angeles Dodgers, poker, loggery, Johnston, TV westerns and my garden." The L. A. Dodgers and TV westerns may be controversial subjects but there's nothing controversial about the extra high quality of RCA Victor and Zenith TV sets. Just ask any person who owns one. If you plan to buy a new TV set be sure to visit our store for an interesting demonstration of the finest television reception. And if you haven't seen the new Thomas organ, electric and transistorized, be sure to ask for a demonstration when you come in.

400 Mourners At Judge Rome Funeral Rites

Funeral services were held in Boston's Temple Israel Sunday afternoon for Judge Charles A. Rome, of the Massachusetts Superior Court, who made his home at 65 Crosby road, Chestnut Hill.

Rabbi Roland B. Gittelsohn spoke of Judge Rome's "love for his fellow man" and he told the more than 400 mourners that "Charlie Rome wasn't aware of his goodness. He was humble to a fault."

The 63-year-old jurist suffered a cerebral stroke on Monday of last week at the wheel of his car in the parking lot in Pemberton Square. He died Thursday night at Massachusetts General Hospital.

Judge Rome leaves his widow, Mrs. Esther E. Rome, two sons, Joel of Natick and Bernard of Newton, and four grandchildren.

He was a 1917 graduate of Harvard. Judge Rome received his law degree cum laude from Boston University, which later awarded him an Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws.

He served as assistant U. S. Attorney for Massachusetts from 1933 to 1937, and as a professor at B.U. Law School from 1938 to 1949.

He was appointed to the bench in 1949 by Governor Paul A. Dever.

On his 50th birthday, friends created the Charles A. Rome Scholarship Fund for Boston University law students. He also served as a trustee of B.U., and as president of both the B.U. General Alumni and the B.U. Law School Alumni. He enlisted as a private in the Army in World War I and was discharged as a second lieutenant. In World War II, he was a member of the Newton Selective Service Board.

Judge Rome was a foe of capital punishment.

"I have the comfortable feeling that if I do err, I err on the side of humaneness, and that my goal is progressive penological thinking," he once wrote.

In 1952, he received the Sigma Alpha Mu medallion as the fraternity's "Man of the Year."

He served as chairman of the New England executive committee of the Zionist Organization, a trustee of the Hebrew Teachers College, a trustee of Temple Israel and director of the Boston Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society.

ning was Miss Margaret Burns, chairman of Evening Divisions for the Mass. State Federation. The usefulness and good work being done by various clubs was the theme for her talk.

Mrs. Isidor Slotnick, president of the League, will greet visitors and welcome new members.

The meeting is being held to study public employment practices in Massachusetts to be undertaken by the Mass. League of Women Voters during the next two years.

Merchants Sink Brighton; Tackle Jewelers

The Newton Merchants, buoyed by victories in their first two season starts, journey to Attleboro to tackle the powerful Attleboro Jewelers in an arc-light game Tuesday night.

Good Sunday afternoon turnouts watched the Merchants trounce the Charlestown Eagles, 22 to 0, and last Sunday 12 to 6 over the Brighton Knights. The latter game drew 1,500 to Allison Park in Nonantum.

Charlestown never got inside the Merchants' 15-yard line, but it looked like a 6-6 tie against Brighton until the waning seconds.

A rushing try for the extra point failed, but then the final gun went off.

The Merchants were bolstered by two new players, and three from last year's team. The newcomers were Ed Walsh and Dick Quilty, and the vets were Al Vitale, Don Cusano and Steve Curley.

However, Vitale and Chub Ryan suffered broken fingers in the Brighton game, and Moe Harrington received a rib injury.

DAVID KRONGARD

David Krongard Candidate For School Board

David Krongard, long active in PTA affairs, has announced his candidacy for the School Committee from Ward 8.

He is a graduate of the Waltham schools, Bentley School of Accounting and Northeastern University. He is the president of an insurance agency.

Mr. Krongard resides at 65 Indian Ridge Road with his wife, Elizabeth, and two children, Evelyn, a student at Meadowbrook Junior High School, and Steven, a student at Memorial School.

He is an Army veteran of World War II with combat service with the 42nd Rainbow Division. He received the Bronze Star for action against the enemy.

Returning home, he continued his education at Northeastern where he was president of Delta Nu Alpha fraternity and chairman of its education committee, and degree team.

He also has been active in safety movements and is a member of the Bay State chapter of the Highway Safety Associates. He has served as chairman of the Insurance Brokers Division of C.I.A., and has been active in many civic affairs.

He is a past president of the following PTA committees, health and safety, publicity, and program. He is a former vice president of the Memorial School PTA, and is currently serving on the executive board of the Meadowbrook Junior High School.

Mr. Krongard offers five points of progress for the schools of Newton:

1. LUNCHES: Reduce time in school by allowing children to eat their lunches during a one-half hour in school lunch period. The way things are, insufficient consideration is being given to the travel time and risks of the younger children.

2. SAFETY: Snow and bad weather have caused safety problems that have never really been corrected. Unless sidewalks are plowed properly, children should not be expected to walk on streets in order to get to school.

3. ADDITIONS: Schools needing additions should begin them at once, and those underway should be completed without delay. With our extensive and expensive school system it is ridiculous to shuttle children from school to school. With all the grandiose plans made in the past it seems incredible that the Oak Hill School was forgotten.

4.—SCHOOL COMMITTEE REPORTS: Report of actions of school committee can be mimeographed five times a year and given to the P.T.A.'s in the districts for the information of the general public, and other interested civic groups.

5. LIBRARIES: Some of the Elementary Schools have poor, if any library facilities. Adequate libraries should form a part of all schools. Most schools depend solely on the P.T.A.'s, who do an admirable job in raising funds to provide books; however, it is the function of the School Department, not any individual P.T.A. to provide all children with satisfactory libraries.

Newton Y Served 700 Boys At Camp Programs

The Newton Y.M.C.A., during a year celebrated as the 75th anniversary of YMCA camping throughout the country, served 700 local boys in its four campaign programs, according to reports made at the first fall meeting of the YMCA Board of Directors.

Camp directors and camp committee chairmen reported for their respective camps and indicated that 1959 was a banner year for Newton YMCA camping. The year was featured by high attendance figures and many property and facility improvements.

Fred A. Hawkins, chairman, and Frank M. Simmons, director, reported a record total of 233 different campers attended Camp Frank A. Day, the residence camp located in East Brookfield.

Camp Massasoit, the day camp conducted at the association building, completed its 18th season August 14, with 198 boys attending one or more of the two-week periods. Reporting for Camp Massasoit were: Robert H. Chubb, chairman; Edward R. DiPersio, director; and Robert G. Rowe, associate director.

Sidney A. Marston, Camp Chickadee committee chairman, reported that the day camp site located in Wayland now includes 22 acres of land because of a recent acquisition of adjoining property. Russell E. Ball, camp director, noted that the camp operated with capacity enrollment for all four periods. Donald J. Eacmen is the associate director.

Ray Fields, chairman, and Ronald A. LaMar, director, reported two successful bus trips for Camp Vagabond, the Newton YMCA trip camp. LaMar showed color slides of the two two-week trips to the Coast of Maine and Vermont.

Other items on the agenda for the evening included a Treasurer's Report by Charles E. Smith, and a General Secretary's Report by Alex R. Miller. Announcement of the annual Commitment Dinner, which will be held on Wednesday, November 18, was made by Eldred M. Peterson, president. Harold Howe, II will be the speaker.

A warm "welcome home" was extended to fellow board member Arthur T. Gregorian, recently returned from a summer visit to Turkey and Iran.

Grid Trophy To Honor Late Winslow Howland

A former prominent Newton resident and city official, Boston executive, and one-time athletic star at Bowdoin College will be honored by a memorial trophy to be awarded annually to a member of the College varsity football team.

A member of Bowdoin's 1959 eleven will be the first recipient of the new trophy, to be known as the Winslow R. Howland Football Trophy.

The trophy, a handsome silver cup topped by a replica of a football player, has been presented to Bowdoin by friends of the late Winslow Howland, member of the Class of 1929, who was captain of the football and hockey teams at Bowdoin during his senior year.

Howland was treasurer of the Industrial Mutual Insurance Company of Boston at the time of his death on February 20, 1958. He was at one time a director of the Auburn-dale Co-operative Bank, a member of the investment committee of the Newton Savings Bank, and a trustee of Lasell Junior College.

He also was a past president of the Boston Bowdoin Club and served at one time as a member of the Newton School Committee. At Bowdoin, he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Mrs. Howland, the former Helen Soule, and two children, George F., and Susan S., reside at 12 Graydale circle in Auburndale.

Howland was a graduate of Newton High School and an outstanding athlete and leader during his undergraduate days at Bowdoin. He was a member of the football, hockey, baseball and tennis teams and served as vice-president of his class in his junior and senior years. He also was secretary-treasurer of the Student Council in his senior year and a member of the Athletic Committee and the White Key, another athletic organization.

The award of the Howland Trophy will be made each year at the annual football banquet to "the member of the varsity football team who has made the most marked improvement on the field of play during the football season and who has shown the qualities of aggressiveness, co-operation, enthusiasm for the game, and the fine sportsmanship characteristic of Winslow Howland."

To Raise Funds For Retarded Kiddies

Newton "Donnie Day" Next Sunday

Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., has proclaimed Sunday, September 27, officially as "A Day For Donnie" in Newton, when a city-wide house-to-house campaign will be launched to aid in the drive to raise funds to finance the care, treatment and rehabilitation of mentally retarded children in Massachusetts.

WHEREAS, these unfortunate boys and girls require special programs adapted to their individual, limited abilities; and

WHEREAS, programs of this nature, providing opportunities for the mentally retarded to attend pre-school nurseries, participate in recreational activities, join in social adjustment classes and receive rudimentary vocational training, have been pioneered by the Greater Boston Association for Retarded Children; and WHEREAS, this Association provides scholarship aid for students seeking to pursue careers in scientific fields working to alleviate the problems of mental retardation; and

WHEREAS, the Greater Boston Association for Retarded Children is sponsoring programs of research which it hopes will lead to the discovery of causes and possible prevention of mental retardation; and

Fingold Aide Backs Gibbs For Mayor

Former Assistant Attorney General George Michaels today endorsed State Senator Donald L. Gibbs for election as Newton's next Mayor.

The statement by Michaels aroused surprise in the city's political circles because he served under Fingold with Norman E. Moore who is one of the candidates opposing Gibbs in the mayoralty race.

He resigned as an Assistant Attorney General a few days after the sudden death of the late George Fingold on Labor Day weekend a year ago.

Michaels has been active in civic, charitable and fraternal affairs in Newton.

He is the first vice president of the Couples' Club of the Temple Emanuel, is chairman of both the Dinner Committee and the Supper Forum of that Temple, is president of the Men's Council of the Jewish Tuberculosis Sanatorium of New England, was a Neighborhood Commissioner of the Boy Scouts for three years and has taken a leading role in Heart Fund and Salvation Army drives.

Michaels came out of World War II with four Battle Stars after serving with the 6th Armored Division in the fierce fighting for Normandy and Bastogne.

In his statement former Assistant Attorney General Michaels paid high tribute to the record Gibbs has made as a State Senator and expressed the conviction that he would make an excellent Mayor for the people of Newton.

Sixth MD's Bag Stolen

Newton police have been instructed by Chief Philip Purcell to be on the lookout for five known drug addicts who may be responsible for the recent wave of thefts of physician's bags.

The sixth such theft this month was reported by Dr. Arthur Lockhart of Brookline, who said his bag was taken from his car at the Boylston street, Chestnut Hill, shopping center.

The bag contained some demerol and morphine and a pad of narcotics prescription blanks.

David A. Aransky of Newton, president of Bradley Sales Associates in Boston, has been elected a trustee of the Boston Evening Clinic, according to an announcement by Joseph Z. Corkin, president.

Moore Backers Map Plans At Organization Meeting

Village chairmen and other persons supporting the candidacy of Norman E. Moore met recently at the Sidney Hill Country Club to discuss organizational plans for the coming campaign.

The meeting was conducted by attorney J. Alex Lane, chairman of the Moore for Mayor Committee, who introduced other members of the committee.

Attorney James E. Fitzpatrick, former aldermanic candidate, after being presented by Lane, outlined to the group plans for house parties and election day activities.

Fitzpatrick called for "an all-out drive by the committee to assure the people of a new type of administration in the City of Newton with progressive ideas and projects that will be for all the people and not a selected few."

He declared that Newton has grown, that "all the people should be recognized, and things planned should have progressive thinking in the future."

"We cannot continue to look back and think of the city as it was 20 or 40 years ago; we must look to the future."

Former Assistant Attorney General Samuel H. Cohen, who served under the late George Fingold called for "the complete demolition of the so-called campaign machine in Newton."

Cohen said this "was the end of the road for machine politicians in Newton."

He declared that Newton is a "large corporation established by and for the people and that they and they alone should be the governing factor when they vote Nov. 3rd."

Attorney Cohen described Moore as a man "with an independent mind, administrative ability, with many years of business experience which would assist him in bringing to Newton a good, clean, efficient administration."

Cohen said he had observed that the late Attorney General Fingold relied upon Moore's "administrative ability, his clear thinking and effective planning ability."

Moore in his remarks commended city employees for the work they performed during the recent fire at the Freeman-Carter plant in West Newton.

He said it was a joint venture calling for the combined efforts of police, firemen and other city employees to keep the conflagration under control for the protection of valuable property in the area.

Maurice Epstein Will Launch School Board Campaign Sunday

Attorney Maurice Epstein today announced plans for the kickoff of his campaign for election to the School Committee from Ward 8 with a reception at his home, 80 Olde Field road, Newton Centre, Sunday night, Sept. 27.

A practicing attorney specializing in the field of labor relations and a member of the faculty at Northeastern University where he teaches the labor relations seminar, Mr. Epstein reported that he already has the endorsement of a number of prominent Newton residents.

Mr. Epstein said that with three children attending Newton schools, he has a keen interest in the city's educational system. He also cited his background and experience in education.

A cum laude graduate in 1932 from Harvard College, where he majored in economics, and from the Harvard Law School in 1935, Attorney Epstein worked with Professor Samuel Williston of the Harvard Law School on a revision of Williston's classical Treatise of the Law of Contracts.

MAURICE EPSTEIN

He served in a legal capacity with the federal government in Washington and Boston before starting the private practice of law in 1945.

Epstein is a member of the American and Boston Bar Associations, has been active in the Program for Harvard College for expanding the facilities of that institution, and has participated for a number of years in the United Fund and Combined Jewish drives as well as other philanthropic endeavors.

"Newton has a school system with a reputation of which we can justly be proud," Attorney Epstein declared. "And since we are all in favor of the best for our children, we must constantly re-examine the school system to make sure we are getting the best for what the community can reasonably afford."

"For example, something can and should be done to cut down the recurring problem of turnover among teachers. Our present pay scales have attracted a fine teaching staff, but serious

Walter P. Muther Seeks Ward 6 Aldermanic Post

Walter P. Muther of 33 Gibbs street, Newton Centre, well known attorney and civic leader, is seeking election as Alderman-at-Large from Ward 6.

He is the brother of Executive Director Lorenz F. Muther, Jr., of the Newton Taxpayers' Association.

In a statement directed at Newton voters, Attorney Muther today reviewed his background and outlined his qualifications for service on the Board of Aldermen.

Muther is the associate counsel for the Associated Industries of Massachusetts and in that capacity has had widespread experience with governmental problems of both a state and local nature.

Before joining the staff of the A.I.M., he was a labor relations attorney and also was associated with a leading insurance company.

A member of both the Boston and Massachusetts Bar Associations, Muther serves on the labor-management relations committee of the Boston Bar Association.

Married and the father of four children who attend Newton schools, he was born and raised in Newton. He graduated from Harvard College and the Harvard Law School. His education was interrupted when he served three and a half years in the army during World War II.

Muther also did graduate study at the University of Cambridge in England and the Harvard Business School.

Attorney Muther has taken an active part in Newton's community life and has participated in numerous civic and charitable endeavors.

For several years he was Newton Centre chairman of advance gifts for the United Fund.

He was formerly president of the Mason-Rice PTA and while holding that position was instrumental in getting the long-term project for the construction of a new school which is to be dedicated Sunday.

Presently, he is vice president of the High School Parent-Teacher-Student Association. He also has been active in the Newton East Little League and the Boy Scouts.

Muther is a member of the Republican City Committee. Although a Republican, he recently was appointed by Governor Furcolo to the Governor's Committee on the Employment of the Handicapped.

The Newton Centre attorney is on the industrial committee of the American Cancer Society, the executive committee of the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce Personnel Managers Club, the board of directors of the Greater Boston Committee on Alcoholism and is on the board of directors and chairman of the Industrial Relations Committee of the Urban League of Greater Boston.

Board Votes $5100 For Path

The Newton Board of Aldermen voted to appropriate $5100 for a footpath extending Parker Terrace from Brandeis road, to the Oak Hill School site.

Action was taken after a public hearing at which residents and parent-teacher associations urged the construction.

The proponents included Morris Pearlman, president of the Oak Hill PTA and Daniel Carr, president of the Meadowbrook Junior High School PTA.

A letter was read in opposition to the footway from Bertram Prombom of 14 Placid road, Newton Centre.

Meanwhile, the Board voted 14 to 3 to deny two petitions of the National Research Corp., of Newton Highlands to store inflammables. The Board was advised that the Company wished to withdraw its petitions, but the Board voted to deny them so that they could not be resubmitted.
